AND RELATED CROSS-ACTION.

PRE'CIS

This Memorandum Decision and Order confirms this Court's earlier oral ruling announced on the record on October 24, 2013, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 4.

At the outset, I wish to express some prefatory comments¹:

¹ The Court makes this introductory comment because the Court's earlier oral ruling, stated on the record at the conclusion of the hearings on the matter, has generated some misconceptions in the press and media as to the scope and meaning of this decision.

The Court recognizes the strong public policy currently prevailing in California that generally favors public access to, and environmental protection for, California's coastline and beaches. Regrettably, in this case that State public policy must give way to private ownership rights because, as explained below, several United States Supreme Court cases say so. Those United States Supreme Court precedent cases are the Law-of-the-Land, and this Court has the judicial duty to follow them even if California law would require a different result.

This Court's intent in making this decision is not to close the entire California coastline to public access and recreational use. This decision only confirms a particular and specific type of private property ownership, namely ownership where title is clearly traceable back to a Spanish Land Grant and is held by a United States Land Patent.²

Also, the Court's decision here does not disturb, in any way, two important rights that belong to the public: (1) the Constitutional right of the State to buy coastal property using the power of eminent domain (Calif. Const., Art. 1, Sec. 19) and (2) the authority of the California Coastal Commission to make real estate development permits subject to some public access (see Nollan v. Calif. Coastal Com'n (1987) 483 U.S. 825).

INTRODUCTION

This lawsuit represents a clash between the right of private owners of beachfront property to exclude others from their property versus the right of the public to access the beach for recreation and enjoyment. The Plaintiff, who refers to itself as Friends of Martin's Beach, claims that it has a right to traverse the private property owned by Defendants, Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, LLC, to access private property known as Martins Beach. The Court concludes, however, that the private property at issue is indisputably owned in fee simple by the Defendants and that the Plaintiff has no cognizable legal theory which gives it the right to access Defendants' private property.

² As set forth in the decision herein, the original title holders of what is now known as Martins Beach held their ownership by virtue of a land grant issued to them when California was part of Spanish Mexico. After the Mexican-American war, when California became a Territory of the United States, they obtained a United States land patent that was required to perfect their title under the laws of the United States.

1 Before the Court are cross-motions for summary disposition of this case:

2 (1) The motion of Defendants Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, LLC
3 ("Defendants") for summary judgment, or in the alternative summary adjudication, as
4 to all seven causes of action alleged by Plaintiff Friends of Martins Beach ("Plaintiff") in its First 5 Amended Verified Complaint, namely: the first (injunction), second (quiet title – tideland-based
6 public easement under Calif. Const. Art. 10, Sec. 4), third (express dedication), fourth (quiet title
7 – public trust doctrine), fifth (quiet title – pre-existing right of use/ownership), sixth (declaratory
8 relief), and seventh (quiet title –tideland-based public easement under Calif. Const., Art. 10, 9 Sec. 4) causes of action;

10 (2) The motion of Defendants for summary adjudication on the first (quiet title) and 11 second (declaratory relief) causes of action alleged in Defendants' Verified First Amended Cross-
12 Complaint; and

13 (3) The cross-motion of Plaintiff Friends of Martins Beach on the second cause of action
14 (tideland-based public access under Calif. Const., Art. 10, Sec. 4) in its First Amended Verified
15 Complaint.

16 These motions were heard by the Court on October 1, 2013, October 21, 2013, and 17 October 24, 2013. Plaintiff appeared by counsel Gary Redenbacher of Redenbacher & Brown, 18 LLP and Defendants appeared by counsel Jeffrey Essner and Dori Yob of Hopkins & Carley.

19 Having considered all the evidence set forth in the papers submitted, and the inferences
20 reasonably drawn therefrom, the Court: (1) GRANTS Defendants' motion for summary judgment
21 on all causes of action in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified Complaint; (2) GRANTS
22 Defendants' motion for summary adjudication on the first (quiet title) and second (declaratory 23 relief) causes of action in Defendants' Verified First Amended Cross-Complaint; and (3) 24 DENIES Plaintiff's motion for summary adjudication on the second cause of action (tideland-25 based public access under Calif. Const., Art.10, Sec.4) in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified
26 Complaint.

27 In arriving at these rulings, the Court has reviewed and considered the motion and 28

1 opposition papers, supporting declarations, separate statements of fact, judicial notice requests,
2 and other documents set forth in the attached Exhibit 1.

3 UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS

4 The Court finds that the facts described in this section are material facts which are 5 undisputed.

6 Defendants Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, LLC are the owners of the real
7 property located south of Half Moon Bay at 22325 Cabrillo Highway (also known as Highway 1)
8 (hereinafter the "Property").³ Defendants obtained ownership of the property in fee simple title
9 by two separate grant deeds that were recorded on July 22, 2008. (See MB MSJ UMF No. 1; see
10 also FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 1; see also MB MSA Opp. UMF No. 7.)

11 There is a private road on the Property commonly referred to as Martins Beach Road, that 12 leads from the entrance on Cabrillo Highway (also known as Highway 1) to the beach. (MB MSJ 13 UMF No. 2; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 2; MB MSA Opp. UMF No. 8.) The only road to 14 Martins Beach is on Martins Beach Road. (MB MSA Opp. UMF No 3.)

15 Martins Beach is sheltered from the North and South by high cliffs that stretch out into 16 the Pacific Ocean forming an isolated cove. As a practical matter, there is no reasonable access
17 from other beaches to the North or South as Martins Beach is separated from other beaches by the 18 high cliffs. Short of rappelling down the cliffs, the only access is by Martins Beach Road from the 19 East or by boat from the off-shore Pacific Ocean tidelands to the West.

20 Plaintiff alleges that the former owners of Martins Beach – the Deeney Family –
21 welcomed the public to the beach with "open arms" upon payment of a fee.⁴ It is undisputed that

Adjudication (hereinafter "MB MSA Opp. UMF") at No. 7.

27 ⁴ See Request for Judicial Notice in Support of Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, LLC's Motion for 28 Summary Judgment or Alternatively, Summary Adjudication (hereinafter "MB MSJ RJN") at Exh. J, ¶10; See also Request for Judicial Notice in Support of Defendants Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, LLC's Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Adjudication (hereinafter "MB MSA Opp. RJN" at ¶10.)

1 Plaintiff alleges that Martins Beach was a popular community beach that was used for picnicking,
2 fishing, surfing, and other recreational uses under the business run by the Deeney family whereby
3 they charged a fee for entry to the beach; originally 25 cents. (Id.) The Deeney family also 4 provided a general store and public restrooms. (Id.) Plaintiff alleges that this changed when 5 Defendants purchased the Property, closed the gate to the road, and put security guards on the 6 beach. (MB MSJ RJN, Exh. J, ¶11.) Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants have attempted to 7 support criminal prosecution of those who are allegedly trespassing on the Property. (Id. at ¶11.)
8 In response, a group of citizens staged rallies and generated press coverage in an attempt to regain
9 public access to the beach and this lawsuit followed. (Id. at ¶12.)

10 Defendants' ownership of the Property has its origin in a provisional Mexican land grant, 11 a fact that is not disputed by the Plaintiff. (MB MSJ UMF Nos. 10-22; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF at 12 Nos. 10-22.) By virtue of that undisputed provisional land grant, as I further find below by 13 drawing reasonable inference from that undisputed fact, it is beyond dispute that the Property was 14 originally part of a larger parcel of ranch land that passed from the Mexican government into 15 private ownership prior to the time that California was ceded by Mexico to the United States after 16 the Mexican-American war. (MB MSJ UMF No. 11; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 11.)

17 In 1838, the governor of then Spanish Mexico, Juan B. Alvarado, acting in the name of 18 the King of Spain, provisionally granted an 8,905 acre parcel of property known as Rancho
19 Canada de Verde y Arroyo de la Purisima to Jose Maria Alviso. (MB MSJ UMF No. 10; FOMB
20 MSJ Opp. UMF No. 10.) The Property that is involved in this case was included within the area
21 known as Rancho Canada de Verde y Arroyo de la Purisima. (MB MSJ UMF Nos. 11; FOMB 22 MSJ Opp. UMF No. 11.) Two years later, on April 30, 1840, Jose Maria Alviso conveyed his
24 (MB MSJ UMF No. 12; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 12.)

25 Thereafter, a decade later, the 1848 Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo which formally ended
26 the Mexican-American war resulted in Mexico ceding a region of the present day Southwestern 27 United States, including California, to the United States. (MB MSJ UMF No. 13; FOMB MSJ
28

1 Opp. UMF No. 13.) That treaty on its face required that the United States honor the pre-existing
2 Mexican land grants and protect the property rights of Mexican landowners living in those areas.
3 (MB MSJ UMF No. 14; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 14.)

4 Shortly after that, on March 3, 1851, about six months after California's admission as a
5 State in late 1850⁵, Congress passed the California Land Act of 1851 to provide for the orderly
6 settlement of Mexican land claims. (MB MSJ UMF No. 15; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 15.)
7 Congress created the Board of Land Commissioners to Ascertain and Settle the Private Land
8 Claims in the State of California (commonly known as the Board of California Land
9 Commissioners). (MB MSJ UMF No. 16; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 16.) The Board of 10 California Land Commissioners was delegated with the authority to decide land rights and to 11 issue land patents which were a conclusive adjudication of the rights of the claimant as against 12 the rights of the United States, the public, and the citizens of the United States. (MB MSJ UMF
13 No. 17; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 17.)

14 The next year, in 1852, Jose Antonio Alviso filed a claim for Rancho Canada de Verde y
15 Arroyo de la Purisima with the Board of California Land Commissioners. (MB MSJ UMF No.
16 18; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 18.) Jose Antonio Alviso's claim was confirmed by the Board of 17 California Land Commissioners and the District Court of California. (MB MSJ UMF No. 18; 18 FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 18.)

19 The United States filed an appeal from the Land Commissioners' and U.S. District Court's 20 decisions that confirmed Jose Antonio Alviso's claim for Rancho Canada de Verde y Arroyo de
21 la Purisima. That case went to the United States Supreme Court and was resolved in a published 22 opinion in United States v. Alviso (1859) 64 U.S. 318. (MB MSJ UMF No. 19; FOMB MSJ Opp.
23 UMF No. 19.) Jose Antonio Alviso's claim was confirmed by the United States Supreme Court
24 without any mention or reservation of a public trust easement. (MB MSJ UMF No. 20; FOMB

26 ⁵ The people of the Territory of California's October 13, 1849 Constitution was presented to the Congress on 27 February 13, 1850 and an Act of Admission was adopted September 9, 1850. See Vol. 9, United States Statutes at 28 Large, page 452. A further Act adopted on September 28, 1850, provided "That all laws of the United States which are not locally inapplicable shall have the same force and effect within the said State of California as elsewhere within the United States." Vol. 9, United States Statutes At Large, page 521.

1 MSJ Opp. UMF No. 20.) The U.S. Supreme Court found that Alviso proved that his occupation
2 of the land commenced in 1840, and that he had continued his possession uninterrupted for
3 fourteen years, during which time he had been recognized as owner of the land. The high Court
4 held that "No imputation was made against the integrity of his documentary evidence, and no
5 suspicion existed unfavorable to the bona fides of his petition, or the continuity of his possession
6 and claim." (U.S. v. Alviso, 644 U.S. at 319.) As a result, by 1859 the pre-existing provisional
7 Mexican land grant for Rancho Canada de Verde y Arroyo de la Purisima was subject to a final
8 patent confirming the land rights of the Alviso family. (MB MSJ UMF Nos. 21 & 22; FOMB
9 MSJ Opp. UMF Nos. 21 & 22.)

10 The reasonable factual inference to be drawn from this fact is that the Alviso family, by 11 virtue of its pre-existing provisional Mexican land grant, had perfected title to the beachfront
12 land, road, tidelands, and related easements that currently are Martins Beach. And, that is exactly 13 the reasonable inference that the appeals courts have drawn in the precedent cases that apply here.

14 As will be discussed further below in expressing this Court's legal conclusions, a land
15 patent issued by the Board of Land Commissioners is a quitclaim deed from the government of 16 the United States to the claimant by which all other interests in the land that might be possessed 17 by the United States or the public are relinquished and/or extinguished. (Id.; see also Beard v.
18 Federy (1865) 70 U.S. 478, 479.) Land from titles not confirmed by a land patent of the Board of 19 California Land Commissioners then become part of the public domain. (See Summa Corp. v.
20 California (1984) 466 U.S. 198, 202.) Some of the land that Mexico ceded to the United States
21 following the Mexican-American war remained part of the public domain and some went into 22 private ownership. (Id.) The Property at issue in this case was confirmed to the Alviso family at 23 the time the patent became final in 1865, and at no point was there any conveyance of the 24 Property here to the State of California. (Id.)

25 Defendants' predecessors-in-interest, the Denney family, had a large billboard along 26 Highway 1 that advertised Martins Beach and invited members of the public to the beach for the
28

1 payment of a fee.⁶ (MB MSJ UMF No. 6; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 6.) The billboard
2 advertised permissive access along Martins Beach Road to use the parking area and the dry sand
3 beach for recreational use and for fishing. (MB MSJ UMF No. 7; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 7.)
4 The Deeneys constructed a parking lot on the Property, and also constructed public toilets, and
5 opened a convenience store on the beach that catered to the public that came to use the tidelands.
6 (MB MSJ UMF No. 7; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 7.)

7 LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

8 Based on the undisputed facts recited above, this case may be summarily decided as a 9 matter of law because there are no triable issues of material fact raised in the pending motions.

10 This Court will address this matter as a motion for summary adjudication so there is an 11 accurate record of the Court's reasoning on each cause of action. The end result, taken
12 collectively, is that the Court is (1) granting Defendants' motion for (a) summary judgment on all
13 causes of action in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified Complaint and (b) summary adjudication
14 on the first (quiet title) and second (declaratory relief) causes of action in Defendants' Verified
15 First Amended Cross-Complaint and (2) denying Plaintiff's cross-motion for summary
16 adjudication on the second cause of action (tideland-based public access under Calif. Const., Art.
17 10, Sec. 4) in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified Complaint.

18 The Court grants Defendants' motion for summary adjudication on the fourth (quiet title),
19 second (tideland-based public access [by road] under Calif. Const., Art. 10, Sec. 4), and seventh 20 (tideland-based public access [by water] under Calif. Const., Art. 10, Sec. 4) causes of action in 21 Plaintiff's First Amended Verified Complaint and denies Plaintiff's motion for summary
22 adjudication on the second cause of action (tideland-based public access [by water] under Calif.
23 Const., Art. 10, Sec. 4) in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified Complaint based primarily on the 24

25 ⁶ The Court notes that in footnote 1 to Defendants' Separate Statement of Undisputed Material Facts in Support of 26 Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, LLC's Motion for Summary Judgment or Alternatively, Summary
27 Adjudication, Defendants state that it is an undisputed fact that Plaintiff made the allegations described in UMF Nos.
28 6, 7, and 8, but Defendants reserved the right to fully contest those allegations at trial. The Court finds that it is a fair reading of Defendants' papers that they did not, for purposes of the motions before the Court, dispute the allegations in UMF Nos. 6, 7, and 8, therefore the Court will accept those facts as materially undisputed for purposes of these motions.

1 following three points of law, discussed in more detail below:

2 1. California state law does not control because a series of United States
3 Supreme Court cases are preemptive in holding that no public right of access exists
4 because Defendants' federal patent rights are controlling.

5 2. Any countervailing public rights under Article 10, Section 4 of the 6 California Constitution do not and cannot override the federal land patent title in 7 the Defendants because, as a matter of federal law, the patent acted as a quitclaim
8 deed that ended any preexisting public access rights.

9 3. For the Court to rule otherwise would confer to the public a right of public
10 access without any eminent domain proceeding and without any just compensation 11 which is required as a matter of both federal and state constitutional law, and 12 would constitute an unlawful taking of the Defendants' federal land patent 13 ownership rights.

14 Also, the Court finds that its rulings on the these above-referenced fourth (quiet title),
15 second (Calif. Const., Art. 10, Sec.4 [road]), and seventh (Calif. Const., Art. 10, Sec. 4 [water])
16 causes of action are completely dispositive of the first (injunction), fifth (quiet title), and sixth
17 (declaratory relief) causes of action in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified Complaint and on that 18 basis grants Defendants' motion for summary adjudication on those causes of action. As to 19 Plaintiff's third cause of action (express dedication), the Court grants Defendants' motion for 20 summary adjudication on the grounds that no triable issue is raised based on the undisputed facts, 21 namely that there was no express dedication of the road or of any form of public access from the 22 ocean onto Defendants' Property.

23 Finally, the Court grants Defendants' motion for summary adjudication on the first cause
24 of action (quiet title) and its second cause (declaratory relief) in Defendants' Verified First 25 Amended Cross-Complaint.

26 A. Summary Adjudication is Granted in Favor of Defendants On The Fourth, 27 Second, and Seventh Causes of Action in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified
28 Complaint

1. California State Law Does Not Control Because a Series of United Supreme Court Cases are Preemptive in Holding that No Public Right of Access Exists Because Defendants' Federal Patent Rights Are Controlling

Summary adjudication is granted in favor of Defendants on Plaintiff's fourth cause of

1 action to quiet title to the "tidelands" and the "inland dry sand area" under the public trust
2 doctrine.⁷ The "tidelands" are defined as "the lands between the lines of mean high tide and
3 mean low tide, covered and uncovered successively by the tidal ebb and flow." (Aptos Seascape
4 Corp. v. County of Santa Cruz (1982) 138 Cal.App.3d 484, 505 [citations omitted].) Generally,
5 under the public trust doctrine, "when the tidelands have been granted by the state to a private
6 party, that party receives the title to the soil, subject to the public's right to use the property for 7 purposes such as commerce, navigation, fishing, as well as for environmental and recreational
8 purposes." (Aptos Seascape Corp., 138 Cal.App.3d at 505 [emphasis added].)

9 Relevant here, however, is that under the authority of Summa Corp. v. California (1984)
10 466 U.S. 198, the State's public trust easement only exists over lands to which the State acquired 11 title by virtue of its sovereignty upon admission to the United States. In Summa, the United 12 States Supreme Court found that a public trust easement cannot be asserted over private property
13 when the owners' predecessor-in-interest had their interest confirmed in federal patent 14 proceedings under the Act of 1851 without any mention of such an easement.

15 In dispute in Summa were tidelands in an area known as Ballona Lagoon to which Summa
16 Corp. held a confirmed patent derived from a Mexican land grant. The City of Los Angeles
17 sought to enter and dredge an area of the Ballona Lagoon and build improvements thereon
18 without exercising eminent domain or paying compensation. The City brought suit against the 19 property owner in a California state court, alleging that it held an easement in the Ballona Lagoon
20 pursuant to the public trust. The State of California was joined as a defendant and filed a cross-21 complaint in the action, "alleging that it had acquired an interest in the lagoon... upon its 22 admission to the Union, that it held this interest in trust for the public, and that it had granted this 23 interest to the City of Los Angeles." (Id. at 200.) The trial court ruled in favor of the City and 24 State, finding that Ballona Lagoon was subject to the public trust easement. The California
25 Supreme Court affirmed.

26
27 ⁷ The public trust doctrine has its origins in ancient Roman law. See Vol. I Wigmore, A Panorama of the World's 28 Legal Systems (1923), at pages 387-389, quoting the text of a Roman land conveyance that reserved portions of meadowlands for pre-existing public uses.

1 The U.S. Supreme Court reversed the decision of the California Supreme Court, holding
2 in Summa that the State had no public trust easement in the property. This was so, said the U.S.
3 Supreme Court, because neither the United States nor the State ever obtained sovereign title to the 4 property -- the State having failed to assert a public trust easement during the patent proceedings
5 that were held to confirm privately held title to rancho lands pursuant to the Act of March 3,
6 1851. (Id. at 205-209.)

7 A land patent issued by the Board of Land Commissioners is a quitclaim deed from the 8 Government of the United States to the claimant relinquishing all interests in the land that might 9 be possessed by the United States or its people including the people of the State of California.
10 (Beard v. Federy (1865) 70 U.S. 478.) In Beard v. Federy the United States Supreme Court said:

11 A patent of the United States issued upon a confirmation of a claim to land by 12 virtue of a right or title derived from Spain or Mexico is to be regarded in two 13 aspects,- as a deed of the United States, and as a record of the action of the 14 government upon the title of the claimant as it existed upon the acquisition of 15 California. As a deed its operation is that of a quitclaim, or rather of a conveyance
16 of such interest as the United States possessed in the land, and it takes effect by 17 relation at the time when proceedings were instituted by the filing of the petition 18 before the Board of Land Commissioners. As a record of the government it is evidence that the claim asserted was valid under the laws of Mexico, that it was entitled to recognition and protection by the stipulations of the treaty; and might have been located under the former government, and is correctly located now so as to embrace the premises as they are surveyed and described. As against the government and parties claiming under the government, this record, so long as it remains unvacated, is conclusive.”

19 (Beard v. Federy, 70 U.S. 478 at 479.)

20 Read together, the U.S. Supreme Court decisions in United States v. Alviso (1859) 64 U.S.
21 318 and Beard v. Federy (1865) 70 U.S. 478, stand for the proposition that the claim made by the 22 Plaintiff in this case is extinguished by virtue of the Mexican land patent to the Alviso family. In 23 other words, Defendants’ predecessor-in-interest, Jose Antonio Alviso, had his interest in the 24 Property confirmed in federal patent proceedings that took place pursuant to the Act of 1851
25 without any mention of a public trust easement. (MB MSJ UMF No. 20; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF
26 No. 20.) Accordingly, under the express authority of Summa, Beard, and Alviso, there can be no
27 claim that any part of the Property is held subject to the public trust.
28

1 It does not matter that the Plaintiff is asserting this claim so many years after the U.S. land
2 patent was issued. If this claim had been made immediately after the land patent was confirmed
3 and its quitclaim effect declared, it is clear that there would have been summary judgment or a
4 Rule 12(b)(6) motion for dismissal in U.S. District Court. This Court is obligated to follow the 5 decisions of the United States Supreme Court.

6 Moreover, the United States would arguably not be much of a nation if we did not honor
7 the international treaties it has made. If the United States did not do so, even as to a treaty that is 8 quite old like the one involved in this case, what foreign nations abroad would ever be willing to 9 make such international treaties with our nation in the future?

10 Applicable international law requires that such treaties can be relied upon.⁸ See Murray v.
11 Schooner Charming Betsy (1804) 6 U.S. (2 Cranch) 64, observing that "... An Act of Congress
12 ought never to be construed to violate the law of nations...". See also, Medellin v. Texas (2008)
13 522 U.S. 491, at 505-506, commenting that, as a compact between nations, a treaty "...ordinarily 14 depends for the enforcement of its provisions on the interest and honor of the governments which 15 are parties to it.", citing Head Money Cases (1884) 112 U.S. 580, at 598.

16 Furthermore, the international obligation of nations to honor the treaties they make has 17 been held to override countervailing public trust easements. Even if Plaintiff Friends of Martins
18 Beach were correct that the scope of the provisional Mexican land grant held by the Alviso family 19 did not include the submerged off-shore tidelands, and that those tidelands were reserved from the 20 land grant and, as a result, remained in public trust at the end of the Mexican-American war when 21 California became a territory of the United States, the suggestion that – as a result of such a 22 "carve-out" of those tidelands by virtue of the provisional status of the Mexican land grant – the 23 submerged lands had to remain public and could not be conveyed into private ownership is 24 simply wrong as a matter of international law. Under its international duty to implement treaties
25 entered into the United States, Congress had the power and authority to include tidelands within 26 the scope of the land patent issued here by the Board of California Land Commissioners.

28 ⁸ A fundamental rule of international law is that treaties must be performed in good faith under the rule of pacta sunt servanda. See Bishop, International Law Cases and Materials (2d Edit. 1962) at pages 133-134.

1 That this is so was held in Shively v. Bowlby (1894) 152 U.S. 1, at 27-28. In Shively v.
2 Bowlby, in describing native-American Indian treaty lands, the United States Supreme Court
3 noted that prior to the admission of new states into the United States, territorial lands in the West
4 were held by the United States government in public trust for future states. With respect to the 5 general rule that such public trust lands could not be sold or otherwise conveyed into private
6 ownership, the U.S. Supreme Court declared that there were certain exceptions to that doctrine,
7 one of those exceptions being the international obligation to honor treaties made by the United
8 States with other nations.

9 As the high Court stated in Shively v. Bowlby:

10 We cannot doubt, therefore, that Congress has the power to make 11 grants of lands below the high water mark of navigable waters in 12 any Territory of the United States, whenever it becomes necessary to 13 do so in order to perform international obligations, or to effect the 14 improvement of such lands for the promotion and convenience of 15 commerce with foreign nations and among the several States, or to 16 carry out other public purposes appropriate to objects for which the 17 United States hold the Territory [emphasis added].”

18 And, the above-quoted international obligation exception applies to the pre-statehood period
19 when California was a Territory of the United States.

20 The importance of this international obligation to honor treaties with foreign nations has 21 been specifically recognized in respect to the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, the very one involved
22 here. In Borax Consol., Ltd. v. City of Los Angeles (1935) 296 U.S. 10, at 15 (dicta), the U.S.
23 Supreme Court distinguished between tidelands acquired from Mexico to be held in public trust
24 for the benefit and use of the public from tidelands that were subject to pre-existing Mexican land 25 grants “...which required a different disposition, -- a limitation resulting from the duty resting
26 upon the United States under the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo ... to protect all rights of property
27 which had emanated from the Mexican Government prior to the treaty. [emphasis added].”

28 Accordingly, as a matter of law, any claim that the Property is subject to the public trust is now barred and summary adjudication is granted in favor of the Defendants on Plaintiff’s fourth

1 (quiet title) cause of action.

6 Preexisting Legal Rights

7 Summary adjudication is also granted in favor of the Defendants on Plaintiff's second and 8 seventh causes of action whereby Plaintiff seeks the imposition of a "public easement" to the 9 beach, inland dry sand, and parking area under the Article 10, Section 4 of the California
10 Constitution.

11 Plaintiff believes, under its second cause of action, that members of the public are entitled
12 to a right of access under the California Constitution, Article 10, Section 4, which basically says
13 that, since the State has ownership of the tidelands. Plaintiff contends that, going hand-in-hand
14 with that tideland ownership is a right of access by virtue of the road going into the tidelands and 15 also a right, under California Constitution, Article 10, Section 4, of access and use of the inland 16 beach fronting the ocean which is the claim of plaintiff's seventh cause of action. As 17 Article 10, Section 4 of the California Constitution provides:

18 No individual, partnership, or corporation, claiming or possessing the frontage or 19 tidal lands of a harbor, bay, inlet, estuary, or other navigable water in this State,
20 shall be permitted to exclude the right of way to such water whenever it is required
21 for any public purpose, nor to destroy or obstruct the free navigation of such water;
22 and the Legislature shall enact such laws as will give the most liberal construction
23 to this provision, so that access to the navigable waters of this State shall be 24 always attainable for the people thereof.

25 This Section of the California Constitution is a restatement or codification of the 26 preexisting public trust doctrine as it relates to the tidelands and what rights flow from the 27 tidelands. Accordingly, under the authority of United States v. Alviso (1859) 64 U.S. 318 and 28 Beard v. Federy (1865) 70 U.S. 478, as a matter of federal law, the public trust doctrine as it is restated in the California Constitution does not give the Plaintiff public access rights in this circumstance, and that is what was expressly held in Summa Corp. v. California (1984) 466 U.S.
198.

While it is correct that in Summa Justice William Rehnquist (then still an Associate

1 Justice of the Court) addressed the issue under the public trust doctrine, it is also clear from
2 reading the facts recited in the decision that the City's position in that case was grounded in the 3 idea that the right to access Ballona Lagoon was rooted in Article 10, Section 4 of the California
4 Constitution. Therefore, while the Summa case reads in terms of the public trust doctrine, this
5 Court is also relying on it in connection with the second and seventh causes of action under the 6 California Constitution because the State Constitution is simply a restatement of the public trust
7 doctrine as it preexisted, specifically with respect to access rights in connection with the 8 tidelands.

9 In that regard, in Summa, Justice Rehnquist states:

10 The question we face is whether a property interest so substantially in derogation
11 of the fee interest patented to petitioner's predecessors can survive the patent 12 proceedings conducted pursuant to the statute implementing the Treaty of 13 Guadalupe Hidalgo. We think it cannot. The Federal Government, of course, 14 cannot dispose of a right possessed by the State under the equal-footing doctrine of 15 the United States Constitution. [Citation] Thus, an ordinary federal patent 16 purporting to convey tidelands located within a State to a private individual is 17 invalid, since the United States holds such tidelands only in trust for the State.
18 (Borax, Ltd. v. Los Angeles, 296 U.S. 10, 15-16, 56 S.Ct. 23, 25-26, 80 L.Ed. 9 19 (1935).) But the Court in Borax recognized that a different result would follow if the private lands had been patented under the 1851 Act. (Id., at 19, 56 S.Ct. at 27.)
Patents confirmed under the authority of the 1851 Act were issued "pursuant to the authority reserved to the United States to enable it to discharge its international duty with respect to land which, although tideland, had not passed to the State."
(Id., at 21, 56 S.Ct. at 28. See also *Oregon ex rel. State Land Board v. Corvallis
Sand & Gravel Co.*, 429 U.S. 363, 375, 97 S.Ct. 582, 589, 50 L.Ed.2d 550 (1977);
Knight v. United States Land Assn., 142 U.S. 161, 12 S.Ct. 258, 35 L.Ed. 974 (1891).)

20 This fundamental distinction reflects an important aspect of the 1851 Act enacted
21 by Congress. While the 1851 Act was intended to implement this country's 22 obligations under the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, the 1851 Act also served an overriding purpose of providing repose to land titles that originated with Mexican grants.

23 Summa Corp. v. California, 466 U.S. 198, 205-06 (citations omitted).

24 Justice Rehnquist goes on to explain:

25 The 1851 Act was intended "to place the titles to land in California upon a stable 26 foundation, and to give the parties who possess them an opportunity of placing 27 them on the records of this country, in a manner and form that will prevent future
28 controversy." (Citations).

1 California argues that since its public trust servitude is a sovereign right, the 2 interest did not have to be reserved expressly on the federal patent to survive the confirmation proceedings.

3 (Id. at 206.) The Court then goes on to reject California's position in that regard and remand the 4 case to the California courts. In doing so, at the end of the decision, Justice Rehnquist further 5 states:

6 We hold that California cannot at this late date assert its public trust easement over
7 petitioner's property, when petitioner's predecessors-in-interest had their interest
8 confirmed without any mention of such an easement in proceedings taken pursuant 9 to the Act of 1851. The interest claimed by California is one of such substantial 10 magnitude that regardless of the fact that the claim is asserted by the State in its 11 sovereign capacity, this interest, like the Indian claims made in Barker and in United States v. Title Ins. & Trust Co., must have been presented in the patent proceeding or be barred. Accordingly, the judgment of the Supreme Court of California is reversed, and the case is remanded to that court for further proceedings not inconsistent with this opinion.

12 (Id. at 209.)

13 Therefore, in Summa the U.S. Supreme Court reversed the decision of the California
14 Supreme Court in City of Los Angeles v. Venice Peninsula Properties (1982) 31 Cal.3d 288, 297
15 and remanded the case for further proceedings not inconsistent with the Supreme Court's opinion.
16 (Summa, at 209.) The California Supreme Court then transferred the case to the Second District
17 California Court of Appeal with directions to decide the appeal in light of the decision of the 18 United States Supreme Court in Summa. (City of Los Angeles v. Venice Peninsula Properties
19 (1988) 251 Cal.Rptr 756.)

20 On remand, in City of Los Angeles v. Venice Peninsula Properties (1988) 205 Cal.App.3d 21 1522, the Second District Court of Appeal adhered to the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in 22 Summa stating:

23 The above cited cases are a complete answer to the State's argument here that only 24 the fee title was settled by the patent process and that the public trust easement
25 exists independent of that patent process. It is difficult for us to see how the patent 26 can be described as settling in the grantee a full and complete title, while at the 27 same time holding that it was burdened by a servitude of the magnitude of that 28 asserted by the State in this action. Inasmuch as California never acquired sovereign title to land which was the subject of a prior grant by the Mexican government, the public trust easement, which is an adjunct of sovereignty and a creature of United States and California law, never arose.

1 City of Los Angeles v. Venice Peninsula Properties, 205 Cal.App.3d at 1532 (emphasis in 2 original).

3 Plaintiff's theory that Mexican law and the Napoleonic Code should apply was also 4 completely rejected by the Second District Court of Appeal. That Court responded to a
5 substantially similar argument with the conclusion "[w]e need not here discuss the Mexican law
6 because any contention that Mexican law is controlling of the scope and effect of the United
7 States patenting process has been laid to rest by decisions of the United States and California
8 Supreme Courts." (Id. at 1532.)

9 In that regard, the U.S. Supreme Court has consistently declined to inquire as to what 10 rights the public may have had under substantive Mexican law, instead opting to confirm private 11 ownership of tidelands free of any easements in favor of public access. See, e.g., United States v.
12 Coronado Beach Co. (1921) 255 U.S. 472, at 487-488, where the U.S. Supreme Court rejected a 13 collateral attack on Mexican land grant/based title to tidelands allegedly confirmed in 14 contravention of pre-existing Mexican law, and holding that the question of whether or not a
15 Mexican land grant included submerged tidelands had to have been decided in the land patent 16 board proceedings where "...there was jurisdiction to decide them as well as if the decision was 17 wrong as if it was right." See also Knight v. United States Land Ass'n (1891) 142 U.S. 161, 191
18 [Field, J., concurring], recognizing that the reconsideration of confirmed Mexican land grants
19 under Mexican law would "...lead to great litigation in the State, to the serious detriment of its 20 interests and those of its people."

22 3. For the Court to Rule Otherwise Would Confer to the Public a Right
23 of Public Access Without Any Eminent Domain Proceeding and Without Any Just Compensation Which is Required As a Matter of Both Federal and State Constitutional Law

24 For this Court to rule otherwise and to require an easement across private property for 25 public use would constitute a taking in express violation of the Fifth Amendment to the U.S.
26 Constitution and Article 1, Section 19 of the California Constitution.

27 In Nollan v. California Coastal Com'n (1987) 483 U.S. 825, 831, the U.S. Supreme Court
28

1 explained that “perhaps because the point is so obvious” the Court has never been confronted
2 with a controversy requiring it to rule on the issue of whether the appropriation of a public
3 easement across a landowner’s premises constitutes a taking. (Id. at 831.) There, the Court
4 addressed the constitutionality of the Coastal Commission’s requirement that the Nollans’ offer to 5 dedicate a lateral public beach easement along their beachfront lot as a condition of approval of a
6 permit to demolish an existing bungalow and replace it with a three-bedroom house. (Id.)

7 Before addressing the constitutionality of the permit condition, the Court hypothetically
8 explained that “if California had simply required the Nollans to make an easement across their 9 beachfront available to the public on a permanent basis in order to increase public access to the 10 beach, rather than condition their permit to rebuild their house on their agreeing to do so, we have 11 no doubt there would have been a taking.” (Id. at 831.) The Court explained that “[g]iven, then, 12 that requiring an uncompensated conveyance of the easement outright would violate the 13 Fourteenth Amendment, the question becomes whether requiring it to be conveyed as a condition
14 for issuing a land-use permit alters the outcome.” (Id.)

15 The U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in Nollan dictates that the outcome Plaintiff is urging 16 here is unconstitutional. Without a constitutionally permissible permit condition, or the exercise
17 of the eminent domain power, Plaintiff cannot ask the Court to impose an easement across private 18 property for public use.

19 Plaintiff argues that the result should somehow be different in the case of beachfront
20 property. In Nollan, the Court dismissed a similar argument that was raised by Justice Brennan in 21 dissent. There, Justice Brennan raised a question regarding whether Article 10, section 4 of the 22 California Constitution required a different result in the case of beachfront property based on its 23 prohibition on “exclude[ing] the right of way to [any navigable] water whenever it is required for 24 any public purpose.” (Id.)

25 Although declining to squarely address that issue of California Constitutional law, the 26 majority of the U.S. Supreme Court said that even if Article 10, Section 4 applied, several 27 California cases (all of which were cited in Defendants’ moving papers here) suggested that 28

1 Justice Brennan's interpretation of the effect of Article 10, section 4 was "erroneous" and instead
2 held that "to obtain easements of access across private property the State must proceed through its
3 eminent domain power." (Id. citing Bolsa Land Co. v. Burdick (1907) 151 Cal.254, 260; Oakland
4 v. Oakland Water Front Co. (1897) 118 Cal.160, 185; Heist v. County of Colusa (1984) 163
5 Cal.App.3d 841, 851; Aptos v. Seascope Corp. v. Santa Cruz (1982) 138 Cal.App.3d 484, 505-
6 506.)

7 The U.S. Supreme Court said that while none of the above cited cases "specifically 8 addressed" the argument that Article 10, section 4 allowed the public to cross private property to 9 get to navigable water, if that section meant that such crossings were allowed, it is "hard to see"
10 why that express State constitutional provision was not invoked in those cases. (Id.)

11 The Court also cited the California Attorney General's opinion, 41 Op.Cal.Atty.Gen. 39,
12 41 (1963), stating "[i]n spite of the sweeping provisions of [Art. 10, sect.4] and the injunction
13 therein to the Legislature to give its provisions the most liberal interpretation, the few reported
14 cases in California have adopted the general rule that one may not trespass on private land to get 15 to navigable tidewaters for the purpose of commerce, navigation or fishing."

16 This Court also recognizes that in Kelo v. City of New London (2005) 545 U.S. 469, a 17 closely divided United States Supreme Court held (in a five-to-four ruling) that New London, 18 Connecticut could properly exercise eminent domain power to acquire private property in 19 furtherance of an economic development plan devised by a private entity, the New London
20 Development Corporation, to construct a resort waterfront hotel and conference center, a new 21 state park, new residences, and various research, office and retail spaces.

22 In Kelo, the U.S. Supreme Court had granted certiorari to consider the question of 23 "whether the [c]ity's proposed disposition of this property qualifies as a 'public use' within the 24 meaning of the Takings Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution." The Supreme Court
25 upheld the Connecticut Supreme Court's ruling, holding that because New London's proposed 26 disposition of the subject property did qualify as a public use, it was a legitimate taking. Justice
27 Stevens, who wrote for the majority, noted that "[t]he [c]ity has carefully formulated an economic 28

1 development plan that it believes will provide appreciable benefits to the community, including --
2 but by no means limited to -- new jobs and increased tax revenue.”

3 The Kelo ruling is important here, in this Court’s opinion, because it recognizes the 4 significance and importance of the requirement of eminent domain and that there be just 5 compensation for the taking of private property.

6 The Court is, therefore, granting summary adjudication on the fourth, second, and seventh
7 causes of action. To do otherwise would be contrary to the usual mandates of eminent domain
8 law, and would render the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and Article 1, Section 19 of 9 the California Constitution meaningless.

10 B. Summary Adjudication is Granted in Favor of Defendants On The Third
11 Cause of Action in Plaintiff’s First Amended Verified Complaint

12 The third cause of action in the complaint is for “quiet title for a public easement to 13 Martin’s Beach Road and for recreational use of the inland dry sand and parking area by express 14 dedication.” (MB MSJ RJN, Exh. J at p. 6.) Specifically, in connection with the third cause of 15 action, Plaintiff argues, in part, that Defendants’ “predecessors in interest expressly offered and 16 through their actions offered to the public access to the Tidelands via Martin’s Beach Road over a 17 period of decades...” (MB MSJ RJN, Exh. J at ¶33.) Plaintiff further argues that Defendants’
18 “predecessors expressly offered use of Martin’s Beach Road to the public to access the Tidelands 19 by writing on a large billboard along a public road for many decades...” (Id. at ¶35.) And, based 20 on these arguments, Plaintiff calls upon this Court to reach the conclusion that “the Public,
21 through express dedication, is entitled to quiet title to an easement for ingress and egress along
22 Martin’s Beach Road and for an easement to use the historical parking area and the dry sand
23 inland for recreational use and fishing.” (Id. at ¶39.)

24 A “dedication” is a voluntary transfer of an interest in land effected by: (1) an offer clearly
25 and unequivocally indicated by the landowner’s words or acts, to dedicate the land to a public use
26 and (2) an acceptance by the public of the offer. (Union Transp. Co. v. Sac. County (1954) 42 27 Cal.2d 235, 240.) The offer of dedication and acceptance by the public may be express or 28

1 implied in fact. Friends of Martin's Beach plead an "express" dedication. (MB MSJ UMF Nos.
2 6, 7; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF Nos. 6, 7.)

3 There are very specific requirements that must be met for an "express dedication." An 4 "express" offer of dedication may be made by an express grant to a public or governmental
5 agency in the form of a recorded grant deed. (See Big Sur Properties v. Mott (1976) 62
6 Cal.App.3d 99, 103 [terms of gift deed to public strictly construed]; see also County of 7 Sacramento v. Lauszus (1945) 70 Cal.App.2d 639, 644.) An "express" offer of dedication may 8 also take the form of a transfer for a specific purpose (see e.g. Slavich v. Hamilton (1927) 201
9 Cal. 299, 303), or a grant of easement (see e.g. Los Angeles v. Pacific Elec. Ry. Co. (1959) 168
10 Cal.App.2d 224, 227-233.). An express dedication of roads may also be effected by recording a 11 map of a subdivision. (See Wright v. City of Morro Bay (2006) 144 Cal.App.4th 767, 770.) In 12 that circumstance, the act of filing or recording a map showing lots separated by defined areas
13 named as streets or parks is an offer to dedicate those areas to public use, and sales of lots by 14 reference to the recorded map will repeat and reinforce the offer. (Id., see also Archer v. Salinas
15 City (1982) 93 Cal. 43, 49, 50; Tischauser v. Newport Beach (1964) 225 Cal.App.2d 138, 144.)

16 In addition to an express offer, the conveyance must reserve specific uses to the grantor
17 and there must be an acceptance by a public entity of the offer to dedicate. (City of Palos Verdes
18 Estates v. Willett (1946) 75 Cal.App.2d 394, 398; Baldwin v. City of Los Angeles (1999) 70 Cal.
19 App. 4th 819, 837; City of Anaheim v. Metropolitan Water Dist. Of So. Cal. (1978) 82 Cal.App.3d
20 763, 770 ["acceptance by the public entity is essential to complete a dedication."].) Acceptance
21 of a public offer to dedicate occurs when formal acceptance is made by the proper public
22 authorities. (Baldwin, 70 Cal.App.4th at 837.) Thus, an express dedication is said to have the 23 characteristics of a contract, in that it requires both an offer and acceptance and is not binding
24 until there has been an acceptance. (Id.)

25 Here, Plaintiff argues that Defendants' predecessor-in-interest expressly dedicated an 26 easement to the public by "writing on a large billboard along a public road for many decades."
27 (MB MSJ UMF No. 6; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF Nos. 6.) Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants'

1 predecessor-in-interest “expressly” dedicated an easement by “constructing a parking lot,
2 providing toilets, and opening a convenience store on the beach that catered almost exclusively to
3 the public that came to use the Tidelands.”(MB MSJ UMF No. 7; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 7.)

4 This Court agrees with the Plaintiff’s position that the billboard can reasonably be taken
5 as a writing and it is clear that Defendants’ predecessor-in-interest, the Deeneys, consented to 6 having the public enter the property for permissive recreational use. The Deeneys built facilities
7 such as a convenience store and public toilets for the public use. These facts are undisputed.
8 These facts, however, do not constitute an “express dedication” which normally requires a
9 recorded grant deed and is ordinarily based on a history of use and access that is not on a
10 permissive basis and not given, as this one, pursuant to the payment of a fee. (See Big Sur
11 Properties, supra 62 Cal.App.3d at 103; see also County of Sacramento v. Lauszus, supra 70
12 Cal.App.2d at 644.)

13 Based on the authorities cited in the moving, opposition, and reply briefs, this Court
14 concludes that by doing the things alleged by the Plaintiff, including maintaining the billboard on 15 their property, the public toilets, and the convenience store, the Deeneys were engaging in 16 commercial advertising in furtherance of their private ownership rights that go back to the United 17 States land patent discussed above. That commercial advertising did not constitute an express 18 dedication of the road or of any form of public access from the ocean.

19 In addition to the authorities cited above, the Court is also basing its decision on City of 20 Watsonville v. Mike Resetar, 1 Civil 26538 (1st District, January 23, 1971), unpublished
21 (Calif. Supreme Court Case No. 37612 [Petition for Hearing Denied Sept. 30, 1971]), a copy of 22 which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.⁹ The City of Watsonville case supports the idea that the 23 Deeneys’ commercial advertising, and the public’s resulting use of Martins Beach Road during 24 the Deeneys’ ownership, does not constitute an express dedication.

25 In City of Watsonville, the City filed suit to quiet title to the Pinto Lake area, in the 26 Eastern part of Santa Cruz County, that had been earlier purchased from the Watsonville Water &
27

28 ⁹ The Court has requested the publication of this appellate decision so that it may be relied on here.

1 Light Company. Pinto Lake was originally part of a large parcel known as the Rancho Corralitos.
2 As is the case here, Watsonville Water & Light Company's predecessor-in-interest had obtained
3 its title to the Rancho Corralitos (including Pinto Lake) from a Mexican land grant.¹⁰

4 In the years prior to the filing of the quiet title action in City of Watsonville v. Mike
5 Resetar, the Watsonville Water & Light Company sold water from Pinto Lake to nearby farmers
6 in the area who used the water for crop irrigation. The issue in the case was whether there was a
7 prior abandonment of the City's Mexican land grant rights because the earlier sales of water
8 constituted an "express dedication" of the Pinto Lake to private use.

9 The trial court, Santa Cruz County Superior Court Judge Charles S. Franich, decided that 10 there was no such express dedication. The First District Court of Appeal affirmed. Subsequently,
11 the defendant farmers' Petition for Hearing to the State Supreme Court was denied. Judge
12 Franich's decision became final and the Pinto Lake was quieted for public use as a recreation 13 area.

14 If that was the result for a public entity holding title under a Mexican land grant, the same
15 result should follow for private owners who have the same kind of ownership. In other words, the 16 commercial advertising here, just as the commercial sale of water in City of Watsonville v. Mike
17 Resetar, does not establish an express dedication.

18 For these reasons, the Court is granting summary adjudication in favor of the Defendants
19 on Plaintiff's third cause of action for express dedication.

20 C. Summary Adjudication is Granted in Favor of Defendants On The First, 21 Fifth, and Sixth Cause of Action in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified
22 Complaint

23 The Court finds that, for the reasons stated above, its rulings on the fourth, second, and

24 ¹⁰ The Watsonville Water & Light Company acquired its title to Pinto Lake from Carmen Amesti de McKinlay. See
25 Duckworth v. Watsonville Water & Light Co. (1915) 170 Cal. 425. Carmen Amesti (who married James McKinley
26 of Monterey, California, in 1848) was a daughter of Jose Amesti, the Mexican Alcalde of Monterey. As his daughter,
27 Carmen Amesti had title to the portion of the Rancho Corralitos that included Pinto Lake, the Rancho Corralitos
28 having been given to her father Jose Amesti by a Mexican land grant of 15,440 acres in 1823. As the Alviso family who owned the property did in this case, after the Mexican-American war the Amesti family obtained a U.S. land patent that confirmed Jose Amesti's pre-existing Mexican land grant to the Rancho Corralitos. See Wikipedia, Rancho Los Corralitos, at en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rancho_Los_Corralitos [article #491625774]. See also Amesti v.
Castro (1874) 49 Cal. 325.

1 seventh causes of action in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified Complaint are completely
2 dispositive of the first cause of action for a permanent injunction against "interference with access
3 to and use of Martin's Beach.", the fifth cause of action to quiet title to the inland dry sand above
4 high tide pursuant to "a claim of pre-existing right of use and or ownership", and sixth cause of 5 action for declaratory relief. On that basis, this Court grants Defendants' motion for summary
6 adjudication on the first, fifth, and sixth causes of action in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified
7 Complaint.

9 D. Summary Adjudication is Granted in Favor of Defendants On The First and 10 Second Causes of Action in Defendants' Verified First Amended Cross-
11 Complaint

12 In their Verified First Amended Cross-Complaint, Defendants seek to quiet title to their 13 Property, including their interest in the private road across the Property and the off-shore
14 submerged tidelands, and also seek an order declaring that Plaintiff has no interest in the 15 Property, including but not limited to, any right of public access or any easement for the public to 16 use or access the Property for any purpose whatsoever.¹¹ (RJN, Exh. L.)

17 It is undisputed that Defendants are the fee title owners of the Property. (MB MSJ UMF
18 No. 1; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No. 1.) As explained in detail above, Plaintiff has no right to use
19 or access the Property under any theory. Plaintiff admits in its verified discovery responses that it 20 has no express easements, easements by implication, easements by necessity, or easements by 21 prescription in connection with the Property. (MB MSJ UMF No. 3; FOMB MSJ Opp. UMF No.
22 3.) Further, for the reasons explained above, Plaintiff has no constitutional right of access to the 23 Property under Calif. Const., Article 10, Section 4, and there was no express dedication of any 24 easement. Accordingly, Defendants are entitled to summary adjudication and an order declaring
25 that Plaintiff has no interest in the Property, including but not limited to, any right of public
26 access or easement for the public to use or access the Property for any purpose whatsoever.

27 Additionally, Defendants met all the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure sections
28

¹¹ On December 19, 2013, Defendants filed a dismissal, without prejudice, of the third cause of action for injunctive relief in their Verified First Amended Cross-Complaint. This was the only remaining cause of action in Defendants' Verified First Amended Cross-Complaint.

1 415.50 and 763.010 et seq. for publication of summons on “all persons unknown, claiming any
2 legal or equitable right title, estate, lien, or interest in the cross-complaint adverse to Cross-
3 Complainant’s Title, or Any Cloud on Cross-Complainant’s title thereto.”¹² Accordingly, 4 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 763.030(b), the judgment for quiet title and 5 declaratory relief shall be conclusive against all persons unknown, claiming any legal or equitable
6 right title, estate, lien, or interest adverse to Defendants’ title, or any cloud on Defendants’ title
7 thereto.

ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, the Court hereby:

(1) Grants Defendants' motion for summary judgment on all causes of action in Plaintiff's First Amended Verified Complaint, grants Defendants' motion for summary adjudication on the first and second causes of action in Defendants' Verified First Amended Cross-Complaint, and denies Plaintiff's motion for summary adjudication on Plaintiff's second cause of action;

(2) A Summary Judgment of Dismissal With Prejudice on the Complaint herein to be entered in favor of Defendants Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, LLC and against Plaintiff Friends of Martins Beach;

(3) A Summary Adjudication Quieting Title and Granting Declaratory Relief, consistent with this Memorandum Decision and Order, to be entered in favor of Defendants/ Cross-Complainants Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, LLC, on their Cross-Complaint herein, and against Plaintiff/Cross-Defendant Friends of Martins Beach.

(4) Defendants/Cross-Complainants Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, LLC to have and recover their costs of suit herein subject to Application by the filing of a Memorandum of Costs.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 30, 2014.

Court of Appeal - First App. Dist.
CLIFFORD C. PORTER, Clerk

BY _____ Deputy

CITY OF WATSONVILLE, a municipal corporation,

Plaintiff, Cross-Defendant and Respondent,

vs.

ANTHONY RESETAR, Executor of the Estate of Mike Resetar, Deceased, et al.,

Defendants, Cross-Complainants and Appellants.

(Sup. Ct. No. 37612)

Respondent, City of Watsonville (City) filed a complaint to quiet title to Pinto Lake (Pinto). Certain defendants, including appellants, filed a cross-complaint seeking an injunction ordering the City to sell water, at reasonable rates, for irrigation purposes. Following a non-jury trial, judgment was entered in favor of the City, on the complaint and cross-complaint. Appellants appeal from the judgment.

The trial court in its findings of fact found that the sales of water from Pinto for irrigation were on a casual and sporadic basis as contrasted with the supply of domestic water. From 1901 to 1922 Watsonville Water & Light Company sold water to customers from Pinto directly or from the Green Valley Road pipeline for irrigation, and some of the customers built and maintained their own pumps and pipelines. None of these sales were on a systematic basis, but only as requested or contracted by the farmers. Watsonville Water & Light Company was subject to Railroad Commission regulation, and in a 1919 decision of that Commission relative to Pinto the Commission held (1) that Pinto was entirely separate from the system supplying water to the City; (2) Watsonville Water & Light Company occasionally permitted ranchers in the vicinity to pump water from Pinto, and (3) that this use was occasional. The trial court further found that in Duckworth v. Watsonville W. etc. Co., 158 Cal. 206 (1910), the court found that Duckworth (appellants' predecessor in interest) had no right to the water from Pinto except for domestic use and watering livestock.

The trial court further found that the City agreed to assume all existing obligations of Watsonville Water & Light Company; that the City was not using Pinto water in its system, and there was no service of irrigation water to the appellants, each appellant pumping their own water from Pinto. In 1930 the City and Resetar entered into a 20-year agreement for the sale of water, and in 1939 the City and Pista's predecessor made a similar 10-year agreement. In 1947 the City was selling Pinto water to at least 28 consumers, including Resetar and Pista's predecessor. During that year a pipeline broke and was not replaced. The City gave written notice to consumers it would not sell Pinto water for irrigation after January 1, 1948. Pinto water was sold to consumers, who supplied their own pumps and pipelines, up to the end of 1950, except in the case of Resetar. The City refused to sell water to Resetar after 1949. Since 1949, Resetar has exercised

"self help" and diverted water from Pinto. Since 1950 Pista has done the same. The City has not billed Resetar for water since 1949 and has not billed Pista for water since 1950. The trial court further found that no service area was ever created by the City or its predecessor for supplying irrigation water to appellants. Nor was the conduct of the City, or its predecessor, such as to agree to provide water from Pinto continuously for irrigation or to induce appellants to rely upon water from that source.

The appellants concede that the trial court's findings of fact are correct. Appellants maintain, however, that the trial court drew the wrong conclusions of law. The appellants point out that the pretrial order framed the following two issues: (1) the right (if any) of appellants to take water from Pinto for irrigation purposes, based upon riparian rights, prescriptive rights or irrevocable license, (2) the right (if any) of appellants to the waters of Pinto for irrigation purposes as beneficiaries of a public trust and use declared by the City's predecessor in interest and by the City.

On the first issue the trial court found for the City and appellants do not contest this finding on appeal. On the second issue, it is appellants' position that the trial court found for the appellants, in the findings of fact, but erroneously concluded that Pinto was not dedicated to a public use for irrigation purposes, and further that respondent was not entitled to discontinue irrigation service which had been furnished for half a century. The appeal is based only on this second issue.

The appellants contend that the City has a legal title to the entire water system, including Pinto, but its legal title is impressed with a trust in favor of appellants, who own a right of service. This right of service fastened on the entire water system of the City, and the appellants are entitled to water from any source within the system. The appellants further contend that the City made a binding submission to the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission in 1922 when the water system was transferred to the City, and the City expressly promised to assume all of the then existing obligations of the transferor relative to present and prospective users of water. As a result of this assumption of obligation the City is powerless to discontinue service to the appellants without prior approval of the Public Utilities Commission. The question thus presented is what were the then existing obligations, if any, owed to appellants that the City assumed from Watsonville Water & Light Company?

Considering first the contention that the City was without power to discontinue service, the law is well settled that a public utility cannot go out of business or discontinue its service to the public, in whole or in part, without proper authority. Once the public use attaches, the public utility loses all right to discontinue service on its own motion. (See Pacific Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Superior Court, 60 Cal.2d 426.) There is no question that the supplying of water for domestic purposes was a public use and that the Watsonville Water & Light Company could not discontinue this service without Railroad Commission authorization. The problem here, however, relates to the classification of Pinto water for irrigation purposes. A company having a single and undivided water supply may devote its properties and part of its water supply to public service and may retain part of it for private sale, and it does not become a public service corporation as to all by dedicating a part. (McIntyre v. Consolidated Water Co., 205 Cal. 231; see also Del Mar Water, etc. Co. v. Eshleman, 167 Cal. 666.)

Thus the basic issue as stated by appellants is whether Pinto was dedicated to a public use for irrigation purposes. If Pinto was dedicated to a public use then when did this dedication take place? There had been no dedication by 1910 as the court in Duckworth v. Watsonville W. etc. Co., supra, 158 Cal. 206 found the appellants' predecessor had no right to take water from Pinto except for domestic use or to water livestock, and perpetually enjoined Duckworth from taking water for irrigation purposes. A later Duckworth case (170 Cal. 425) made no change as to the status of Pinto.

In 1919 a Railroad Commission decision found that Pinto Lake was an entirely separate system (from the systems supplying domestic water); that occasionally permits were granted to ranchers to pump water from Pinto. The Commission termed this use "occasional". The Railroad Commission decision did not find that these sales or the use of Pinto water constituted a public use. Thus by 1919 there had been no dedication. In fact, the trial court found that none of the sales of Pinto water for irrigation prior to 1922 were on a systematic basis, but were made only as requested or contracted for by certain farmers. Such sales would not constitute a public use. (See Allen v. Railroad Commission, 179 Cal. 68; Thayer v. California Development Co., 164

1. Predecessor in interest of appellants.

Cal. 117.)

The appellants have not cited any circumstances occurring during the period 1919 to 1922 that would constitute a dedication. As there had been no dedication by 1922 the City, in assuming all the "then existing obligations of" the Watsonville Water & Light Company obviously did not assume an obligation to supply Pinto water for irrigation purposes. Any right possessed by the appellants to this water must therefore have been acquired from the City after 1922.

In 1930 the City and appellants Resetar entered into a 20-year contract for the sale of water. In 1939 the City and appellant Pista's predecessor in interest entered into a similar 10-year contract. Water sold under contract does not constitute a public use. (See Sutter Butte Canal Co. v. Railroad Com., 202 Cal. 179, 190.) Furthermore, if a public use existed, a contract would not have been necessary. After 1947 the City ceased selling Pinto water to consumers as the pipelines became unservicable. An exception was made to consumers who supplied their own pump and pipeline until the end of 1950, except in the case of appellants Resetar. The City refused to sell water to the Resetars after 1949. Since 1949 the Resetars, and since 1950, Pista, have exercised "self help" and diverted water from Pinto, but this "self help" could not be made the basis of any right against the City. The City has not billed the Resetars since 1949 or Pista since 1950. From these facts it is clear that the appellants did not acquire a right to be supplied with water from Pinto after 1922.

Finally, no service area was ever created for supplying irrigation water to the appellants. Nor was the conduct of the City (or its predecessors) such as to constitute an agreement to provide water from Pinto or to induce appellants to rely upon water from that source.

As the City was under no obligation to supply water from Pinto to the appellants, the other contentions raised by the parties need not be discussed.

The judgment is affirmed.

vs.)

No. 37612

MIKE RESETAR, ET AL.,)

Defendants)

MEMORANDUM DECISION

The question in this action is whether defendants Resetar and Pista (hereinafter referred to as Resetar-Pista) have any rights to the waters of Pinto Lake in Santa Cruz County. Plaintiff City, owner of approximately 70 acres of the lake, seeks to maintain said lake for recreation purposes.

The basic issue is whether plaintiff or its predecessors in interest, Watsonville Water and Light Company (acquired by the City in 1922), has by dedication created a right in said defendants to the use of water from said lake, particularly for irrigation purposes.

A number of other questions were included in the pre-trial order but were not urged in oral argument or extensively in the briefs submitted. It is to these questions that the Court will

1 address itself first.

2 The lands of defendants here involved were a portion of 3 the lands originally owned by S. J. Duckworth. In the case of 4 Duckworth v. Watsonville Water and Light Company, 170 Cal. 425,
5 it was held that the Duckworth lands had been divested of both
6 riparian rights (except for domestic uses) and rights of appropri-
7 tion and the Company could dispose of the water as it saw fit.
8 The evidence in the instant case further reflects that the lands
9 of Resitar-Pista do not border on the lake; are in a different
10 watershed; and it would, therefore, appear did not any time have 11 riparian rights. (Bathgate v. Irvine, 126 Cal. 135) Since the 12 lands have no riparian rights, defendants would have no right to 13 use water for domestic purposes. The reservation of domestic water
14 rights in the conveyance from McKinlay to Smith and Montague,
15 September 27, 1884, would attach only to the remaining Duckworth
16 lands still riparian.

17 Defendants also claim an irrevocable license but the 18 Court could find no doctrine justifying the acquisition of water
19 rights in this manner. It would appear that the contention would 20 have to be identical to the doctrine of appropriation. Apparently,
21 this contention applied only to the question of the possible
22 location of defendants Resetar's pump on City property and the 23 location of the pipe lines of all defendants. The evidence appears
24 uncontradicted that the pump of Pista is located on Marmo property
25 and the pump of Resetar on Resh property. Necessarily, the pipe
26 lines extend to City property and the Court is of the opinion that 27 defendants do not have an irrevocable license to maintain them on 28 City property. The contractual arrangements with the City make 29 it clear that there was no such intent.

30 As to acquisition of rights by prescription, the evidence
31 is insufficient to show that the defendants ever acquired any 32 rights as to the Watsonville Water and Light Company or the City

1 and since the amendment of Civil Code Section 1007 have been pre-
2 cluded from doing so.

3 Further, it is the conclusion of the Court that the 4 final judgment of this Court on August 9, 1915, Action No. 3898,
5 S. J. Duckworth, et al, vs. Watsonville Water and Light Company, et 6 al, established no rights in defendants nor did it create any 7 estoppel as to plaintiff.

8 Plaintiff's claim that defendants' causes of action in 9 their cross-complaint are barred by Code of Civil Procedure sections
10 343, 321, 328(3) [apparently an erroneous citation], 319, and 312;
11 Government Code section 910; and laches are without merit.

12 Defendants Resetar have also expressed the possibility
13 of having rights to this water arising out of the agreement dated
14 May 17, 1899, between Luke and Steve Scurich and the Watsonville
15 Water and Light Company. However, if such document carries any 16 water right, there is nothing in the record to show that defendants
17 Resetar succeeded to it. The agreement between Resh and Resetar
18 dated November 12, 1929, by which Resetar obtained the easement
19 for a pump and pipe line expressly reserves the rights of Resh, 20 if any, to take water from the lake. Noted in passing is the 21 statement in paragraph 1e: "It is understood, however, that 22 first parties do not warrant that they have any right to grant to 23 second parties the use of any water from said lake." It would 24 appear, moreover, that the intent and purpose of the Scurich
25 agreement was to permit the use of land otherwise unusable and 26 not to convey any water rights. No evidence was introduced to 27 show that Scurich ever claimed any right to water.

28 The principal issue, then, is whether defendants have 29 acquired any rights to the water on the theory of a public trust
30 and dedication. There appears to be no doubt that a public
31 utility concerned with water, as well as a City, holds such water
32 as a public trust. Defendants correctly assert that the Watsonville

1 Water and Light Company stated it held the water as a public trust
2 for the purposes of emergency supply of water for the City of 3 Watsonville and for irrigation. It appears to the Court, however,
4 that the significant question is whether the conduct of the City
5 and its predecessor has been such as to dedicate the waters of 6 the lake for a specific use and not merely a question of whether 7 the water was held as a public trust. If it has not been so
8 dedicated, then it would appear that the City may use such water
9 for any beneficial use consistent with its public trust.

10 At the outset it should be noted that at least as to 11 these defendants, no service area or district was ever created
12 by either the City or its predecessor. The sales were casual 13 sales and on a contractual basis. Therefore, Fellows v. City of 14 Los Angeles, 151 Cal. 52, Durant v. City of Beverly Hills, 39 C.A.
15 2d 133, People ex rel. City of Downey v. Downey County Water District, 16 202 C.A. 2d 786, and San Bernardino Valley Municipal Water District
17 v. Meeks and Daley Water Company, 226 C.A. 2d 216, cited by 18 defendants, all of which concerned well-defined service areas, do
19 not answer the question. In these cases water had been furnished
20 for domestic use and the users were led to believe and reasonably
21 relied upon a continuation of such service.

22 On the other hand, in relation to service by the Watson-
23 ville Water and Light Company, the Railroad Commission in its 24 decision No. 6539, August 1, 1919, stated: "In addition to the 25 system above described, the company owns a body of water known as 26 Pinto Lake, about three miles north of the city, and occasionally
27 permits ranchers in the vicinity to pump water from it. This use,
28 however, is occasional, and the Pinto Lake system is entirely
29 separate from the system supplying water to the City of Watsonville.
30 The Pinto Lake system therefore is not in use and will not be
31 considered as a part of the system for the purpose of this pro-
32 ceeding." It appears that the Pinto Lake water supply has never

1 been regarded as an integral part of the City system but rather
2 a storage area. Officials of the Watsonville Water and Light
3 Company have referred to the sale of "surplus water" for irrigation
4 purposes, although admittedly this position was not always clear.

5 It does not appear that any significant change in pro-
6 cedure was adopted by the City from that of its predecessor.
7 The City did not deliver water; each of the defendants had pump
8 locations adjacent to the lake from which they pumped water;
9 each had a contract with the city; and none of the lands are 10 within the corporate limits of the City. Neither the City nor 11 its predecessor can be said to have so conducted its operations
12 in regard to Pinto Lake as to expressly or impliedly agree to 13 provide continuous service therefrom for irrigation purposes, or 14 to induce defendants in any fashion to rely thereon.

15 It must be noted that Pinto Lake is a small body of 16 water, varying in size from approximately seventy to one hundred 17 sixty-five acres depending upon dry and wet years. It must also 18 be observed that one of the stated purposes of the Watsonville
19 Water and Light Company in acquiring the lake was to use it for 20 a source of emergency supply for the City of Watsonville. In 21 addition, the rights of several riparian owners must be recognized.
22 Necessarily, therefore, the City and its predecessor had to 23 exercise discretion and restraint in the sale of this water. On 24 the other hand, defendants contend they have the right to take 25 all the water from the lake, prexumably excepting the rights of 26 riparian owners, for irrigation purposes. The practical effect
27 would be that the City would be holding the lake for the benefit 28 of a limited few and, therefore, as a public trust in only a very 29 restricted sense.

30 For several years the City has progressively developed
31 the lake into a recreation area, including boating and fishing.
32 It now has extensive plans for further development. Nevertheless,

1 defendants assert that pursuant to section 106 of the Water Code
2 it is the policy of this state that the highest use of water is
3 for domestic purposes and the next highest use is for irrigation.
4 The question then is whether or not this policy precludes any
5 other use of the water.

6 The Constitutional Amendment of 1928 has provided the 7 basis for the water policy of the state. However, this amendment
8 did not delineate what are beneficial uses. Subsequent to the 9 enactment of section 106, the state enacted section 1243, which 10 provides that the use of water for recreation and the preservation
11 and enhancement of fish and wildlife resources is a beneficial
12 use. This section further directs the State Water Rights Board
13 to take into account, whenever it is in the public interest,
14 the amounts of water required for recreation and the preservation
15 and enhancement of fish and wildlife resources. Further, it has 16 been held that owners of land riparian to lakes have the right
17 to have the water level maintained for recreation purposes,
18 inasmuch as reasonable beneficial purposes comprise other uses
19 of water as well as irrigation and household use. City of 20 Elsinore v. Temescal Water Co., 36 Cal. App. 2d 692, Los Angeles
21 v. Aitken, 10 Cal.App. 2d 460. In reference to the 1928 Consti-
22 tutional Amendment, the Supreme Court in Gin S. Chow v. Santa 23 Barbara, 217 Cal. 673, at page 700, stated: "The purpose of the 24 amendment was stated to be 'to prevent the waste of waters of the 25 state resulting from an interpretation of our law which permits
26 them to flow unused, unrestrained and undiminished to the sea'."
27 In City of Elsinore, supra, the Court stated that a contention 28 that the standing water of a lake is waste was without merit and 29 that the "maintenance of health-giving recreational opportunities"
30 can not "be held to be against the public policy of the state".

31 It is, therefore, the opinion of the Court that the 32 conduct of the City and its predecessor has not been such as to

1 dedicate the waters of the lake for irrigation purposes, nor have 2 the defendants been misled by the policy of the City; and further,
3 that because of the size of the lake, its use for recreation
4 purposes would be the highest beneficial use in furtherance of 5 its public trust.

6 The Court is constrained to add that defendants Resetar
7 have a well upon their property and that defendants Pista have a
8 supply of water from a joint well. Defendants Resetar have not
9 used lake water for several years; and although defendants Pista
10 claim they need supplementary water, the Mitchell V. Pista branch 11 of the family has a well upon its property which has never been 12 used. It appears that it has never been able to obtain a right
13 of way for power purposes from the other defendants and hence has 14 not had power to pump water. It must also be noted that the City
15 presently has a pipe line of its regular system available to 16 defendants from which a 500 gallon per minute supply can be fur-
17 nished. None of the defendants has applied for this water. While 18 it is contended that this supply would be insufficient, this con-
19 tention is based on the failure to use all the water resources
20 available to them and the fears of a drought or loss of the wells.
21 If a drought should occur, it is hardly likely that the waters of 22 the lake would be of any material help to all the demands which 23 would be made upon it; presumably the first would be for domestic 24 purposes. The fear that the wells might give out is a concern
25 which has existed for farmers from time immemorial. The foregoing
26 circumstances would seem to belie any equitable claim by defendants
27 for water.

28 One other point needs consideration. It has never been 29 clear as to how much water the City and its predecessor have 30 actually appropriated. It has been variously claimed by them that 31 40 miner's inches were appropriated; that all of the water of the 32 lake subject to appropriation was appropriated as a storage for

1 emergency use of the city; that all of such water has been
2 appropriated for storage for irrigation. If there is any doubt,
3 it is the opinion of the Court that all of the water subject to 4 appropriation has been appropriated at one time or another for 5 storage for emergency use of the City, for irrigation, and for 6 recreation. Consequently, plaintiff's contention that the City
7 would need to condemn water rights to supply water for irrigation
8 purposes is without merit, and moreover, if the Court had found
9 a dedication it would not have been an "idle act" to require
10 water to be furnished to defendants. Defendants do not seriously 11 contend that the riparian rights of others in the lake must be 12 ignored.

13 Judgment, therefore, is for plaintiff, but each party
14 is to bear its own costs. Counsel for plaintiff is requested to 15 prepare findings and judgment consistent with the foregoing.

25 cases cited by the Defendants.

26 • Objections to Declaration of Gary Redenbacher

27 Objection #1 [members of the public made frequent day trips to coastline beaches 28 sinc 1965]. Overruled, this evidence is relevant, sufficiently unambiguous, and does not lack foundation.

1 Objection #2 [declarant in the 1960's and after saw a billboard advertising access 2 to Martins Beach]. Overruled, this evidence is relevant, sufficiently unambiguous, and does not lack foundation.

3 Objection #3 [many members of the public visited Martins Beach since 1965].
4 Overruled, this evidence is relevant, sufficiently unambiguous, and does not lack foundation.

5 • Objections to Declaration of John Brown

6 Objection #1 [Martins Beach was opened to public use]. Overruled, this evidence is 7 relevant, sufficiently unambiguous, and does not lack foundation.

8 Objection #2 [there was a convenience store and parking lot]. Overruled, this evidence is
9 relevant, sufficiently unambiguous, and does not lack foundation.

10 Objection #3 [declarant and others used the dry island sand]. Overruled, this evidence is 11 relevant, sufficiently unambiguous, and does not lack foundation.

12 Objection #4 [the public users legally accepted Martins Beach Road for public use].
13 Sustained, lacks foundation, is irrelevant, is inadmissible hearsay, and is contrary to 14 Plaintiff's admission in its verified pleadings and discovery responses that access was 15 provided on payment of a per diem fee. There was only permissive use, and no claim for imposition of an implied easement can be made.

16 Defendants and Cross-Complainants Martins Beach 1, LLC and Martins Beach 2, 17 LLC's Objections to Evidence Submitted By Plaintiff Friends of Martins Beach in 18 Support of its Motion for Summary Adjudication:

19 Objection #1 [photograph of gate/signs]. Overruled, an adequate foundation has been 20 laid.

21 Objection #2 [no other roads exist]. Overruled, an adequate foundation has been laid.

22 Objection #3 [lack of horizontal access]. Sustained, lacks adequate foundation and is 23 vague, is also improper expert opinion without adequate foundation. Only vertical access 24 and lateral access are defined legal terms.

25 Plaintiff Friends of Martins Beach's Objections to Declaration of Bill Lott:

26 Objection #1 [Mr. Lott's lack of expertise for opinion that no public trust easement was 27 reserved]. Overruled, Mr. Lott has sufficient expertise to render such an opinion.

28 Objection #2 [opinion that no public trust easement was reserved is irrelevant].
Overruled, the opinion is relevant to the scope and validity of the U.S. land patent.

REPORTER'S TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS
BEFORE THE HONORABLE GERALD J. BUCHWALD, JUDGE
DEPARTMENT 10
OCTOBER 24, 2013

A P P E A R A N C E S:

FOR THE PLAINTIFF:

GARY F. REDENBACHER

FOR THE DEFENDANT:

JEFFREY E. ESSNER
DORI YOB
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

ROSA M. DE NOLA
C.S.R. NO. 8893

PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: I AM GOING TO CALL LINE 7 THE MARTINS
BEACH MATTER THEN. GOOD MORNING.

MR. STPHAO: GOOD MORNING, YOUR HONOR. LIKE
MCARTHUR AND WE HAVE RETURNED.

THE COURT: ALL RIGHT. SO DID YOU WANT TO ENTER YOUR APPEARANCES AGAIN? I KNOW YOU HAVE DONE THAT BEFORE BUT I THINK WE SHOULD HAVE, YOU KNOW, A COMPLETE RECORD.

MR. REDENBACHER: GARY REDENBACHER ON BEHALF OF FRIENDS OF MARTINS BEACH.

MR. ESSNER: GOOD MORNING, YOUR HONOR. JEFF ESSNER
AND MY PARTNER DORY YOB WITH THE LAW FIRM OF HOPKINS AND CARLEY ON BEHALF OF MARTINS BEACH 1 AND MARTINS BEACH 2.

THE COURT: ALL RIGHT. SO THERE ARE THREE MOTIONS ON TODAY. ONE OF THEM IS TO DO WITH THE PROTECTIVE ORDER FOR SOME DISCOVERY AND I AM GOING TO JUST LEAVE THAT TO BE ADDRESSED AFTER RULING ON THE OTHERS AND TAKE UP THE PENDING MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGEMENT AND OR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION HERE AND GIVE YOU A RULING AND DECISION ON THOSE. I DID ASK LISA CHO WHO IS SITTING IN THE JURY BOX SHE IS THE RESEARCH ATTORNEY WHO HAS WORKED ON THIS AND HELPED ME ALL THE WAY THROUGH THESE VARIOUS HEARINGS THAT WE HAVE HAD AND I THOUGHT THAT I SHOULD, YOU KNOW, ACKNOWLEDGE THAT A LOT HAS GONE INTO INTO THIS BY BOTH, YOU KNOW, RESEARCH HELP AND A LOT OF TIME THAT I SPENT ALSO AND SO, YOU KNOW, SOMETIMES THESE MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGEMENT

1 WHEN THEY ARE BEING CONSIDERED IN THE MIDST OF A COMPLETELY
2 FULL DAY TO DAY 15 TO 18 LINE LAW AND MOTION CALENDAR IT'S 3 VERY DIFFICULT TO DO AND GIVE MOTIONS LIKE THIS THE
4 ATTENTION THAT THEY SHOULD HAVE AND CLEARLY WARRANT. SO I
5 HAVE DONE MY BEST TO DO THAT AMID WHAT'S BEEN A PRETTY BUSY
6 CALENDAR.

7 I AM GOING TO APPROACH THIS IN TERMS OF THE MOTIONS
8 FOR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION AND DECIDE IT MOTION-BY-MOTION IN 9 THAT FASHION BECAUSE I THINK IT WILL CREATE A CLEARER
10 RECORD AS TO WHAT MY THINKING AND REASONS ARE. AND THE END
11 RESULT OF THAT IS GOING TO BE, TAKEN COLLECTIVELY, THAT 12 THERE WILL BE A SUMMARY JUDGEMENT FOR THE DEFENDANTS. BUT 13 I THINK TO GET THERE THAT I SHOULD RULE ON EACH OF THE 14 MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION BECAUSE IT WILL GIVE YOU I
15 THINK, AND ANY REVIEWING COURT, A CLEARER STATEMENT OF WHY
16 I HAVE REACHED THAT CONCLUSION.

17 AND I WILL TELL YOU THAT IT'S A VERY INTERESTING
18 CASE. YOU KNOW, SOMETIMES WHEN IN AN ADVOCATE'S CHAIR AND 19 I DIDN'T REALIZE THIS UNTIL I CAME HERE THINGS ARE MORE
20 CLEAR CUT I THINK WHEN YOU ARE THE ADVOCATE. WHEN YOU ARE 21 IN THIS CHAIR IT IS HARDER AND THERE IS MORE GRAY AND 22 SOMETIMES, YOU KNOW, THERE ARE CASES WHERE YOU HAVE SOME 23 DIFFICULTY DECIDING WHAT TO DO. SO I AM GOING TO -- IT'S 24 GOING TO TAKE ME AWHILE TO STATE THIS SO WE WILL HOPE THAT 25 I CAN DO THIS PRETTY EFFICIENTLY.

26 SO I AM GOING TO START BY NOTING THAT THE LAWSUIT,

1 IF YOU STEP BACK AND LOOK AT IT FROM A LITTLE BIT OF A
2 DISTANCE, REALLY PRESENTS A CLASH BETWEEN THE RIGHT OF A
3 PRIVATE LAND OWNER OF BEACH FRONT PROPERTY TO EXCLUDE
4 OTHERS FROM THEIR PROPERTY VERSUS THE RIGHT OF THE PUBLIC
5 TO ACCESS TO THE BEACH THAT'S INVOLVED HERE FOR RECREATION
6 AND ENJOYMENT. AND FROM THAT STANDPOINT IT'S REALLY AT THE 7 FOREFRONT OF A TENSION THAT WE HAVE IN THE STATE AND 8 ELSEWHERE IN THE COUNTRY THESE DAYS, IN THE WAKE OF THE 9 ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION ACT OF SOME YEARS AGO, NOW BETWEEN 10 ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AND PRIVATE OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY
11 AND HERE THE -- YOUR CLIENT, MR. REDENBACHER, THE FRIENDS
12 OF MARTINS BEACH. IN EFFECT YOU ARE LIKE A MINI SIERRA
13 CLUB IN A WAY. YOU BRING SUIT ON BEHALF OF THE GENERAL
14 PUBLIC AND CLAIM ON BEHALF OF THE GENERAL PUBLIC RIGHTS AND 15 INTERESTS IN ACCESS TO THE BEACH, THE DRY SAND INLAND AREA, 16 THE PARKING LOT AND SO FORTH. AND REALLY FROM TWO
17 DIRECTIONS IN MY VIEW; ONE ACCESS ALONG MARTINS BEACH ROAD
18 AND THE OTHER BEING ACCESS FROM THE OCEAN ON A THEORY OF 19 EASEMENTS THAT OPERATE OFF OF THE PUBLIC OWNERSHIP OF 20 TIDELANDS OFF OF THE COAST.

21 I THINK THAT THE -- IT'S FAIR TO SAY THAT IT'S
22 UNDISPUTED IN MY VIEW THAT IN 2008 THAT THE DEFENDANTS HERE
23 MARTINS BEACH 1 AND BEACH 2, THE TWO LLC'S, PURCHASED TWO 24 LARGE TRACKS OF LAND THAT ARE SOUTH OF HALF MOON BAY ALONG
25 THE COAST. I THINK IT'S ALSO UNDISPUTED THAT MARTINS BEACH
26 IS FAIRLY DESCRIBED AS A COVE THAT'S LOCATED ON THE

1 PROPERTY, THAT IT'S SHELTERED FROM THE NORTH AND SOUTH BY
2 75 FOOT CLIFFS THAT STRETCH OUT INTO THE OCEAN AND THAT YOU
3 CAN'T COME ALONG, YOU KNOW, ADJACENT BEACH AREAS AND GET
4 ACCESS THAT WAY AND THE ONLY WAY TO GO IN THERE IS EITHER
5 BY BOAT FROM THE OCEAN, REPEL DOWN THESE CLIFFS OR WALK IN
6 ALONG MARTINS BEACH ROAD INTO THE BEACH. THE PLAINTIFF
7 ALLEGES HERE THAT MARTINS BEACH'S FORMER OWNERS -- A FAMILY
8 BY THE NAME OF DEENEY WELCOMED THE BEACH -- WELCOMED THE 9 PUBLIC TO THE BEACH WITH OPEN ARMS I THINK IS HOW IT'S BEEN 10 PUT EITHER IN THE PAPERS OR IN THE PLEADINGS, THAT THEY
11 CHARGED AN ENTRY FEE TO USE THE ROAD THAT WAS INITIALLY 25
12 CENTS, PROVIDED A GENERAL STORE AND PUBLIC RESTROOMS. AND 13 I THINK IT'S FAIR TO SAY THAT IT'S NOT DISPUTED HERE THAT 14 THE BEACH WAS A POPULAR COMMUNITY BEACH THAT'S BEEN USED
15 FOR PICNICKING, FISHING, SURFING AND OTHER RECREATIONAL
16 USES UNDER THE TYPE OF OPERATION THAT THE DEENEY FAMILY
17 CONDUCTED WHERE THERE WERE FEES FOR ENTRY.

18 THE PLAINTIFF ALLEGES THAT THIS HAS ALL CHANGED
19 WHEN THE DEFENDANTS WHOSE PRINCIPAL OWNER IS A VENTURE
20 CAPITALIST WHO PURCHASED THE PROPERTY GATED THE ROAD AND 21 PUT SECURITY GUARDS THERE AND THERE ARE ALLEGATIONS THAT 22 THEY HAVE MADE ATTEMPTS TO SUPPORT CRIMINAL PROSECUTION OF 23 THOSE WHO ARE ALLEGEDLY TRESPASSING ON THE PROPERTY AND IN 24 ANY EVENT IN RESPONSE TO THAT A GROUP OF CONCERNED CITIZENS
25 STAGED RALLIES AND GENERATED PRESS COVERAGE IN AN EFFORT TO 26 REGAIN PUBLIC ACCESS TO THE BEACH AND THEN THIS LAWSUIT

1 FOLLOWED.

2 AS TO THE MOTIONS THAT ARE HERE THE DEFENDANTS, 3 MARTINS BEACH LLC'S, BRING A MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGEMENT
4 OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE SUMMARY ADJUDICATION AS TO ALL OF THE 5 SEVEN CAUSES OF ACTION THAT THE PLAINTIFFS HAVE RAISED.
6 THE PLAINTIFF, FRIENDS OF MARTINS BEACH, BRINGS A
7 CROSS-MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGEMENT OR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION
8 MORE PROPERLY ONLY ON ITS SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION WHICH IS 9 FOR A PUBLIC EASEMENT TO THE BEACH UNDER CALIFORNIA
10 CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4 WHICH IS A PROVISION 11 WHICH, GENERALLY STATED, PROVIDES THAT BY VIRTUE OF THE 12 PUBLIC OWNERSHIP OF TIDELANDS THAT THERE HAS TO BE A 13 APPURTENANT PUBLIC ACCESS EITHER BY THE ROAD INTO THE BEACH
14 OR FROM THE OCEAN OR BOTH.

15 AS I ALLUDED TO A MINUTE AGO IN GENERAL -- LET ME
16 BACK UP AND SAY THIS. AS I TOLD YOU INFORMALLY BEFORE WE
17 STARTED THE HEARING I AM GOING TO TAKE UP SUMMARY
18 ADJUDICATION MOTIONS AND IN STATING THIS DECISION AND I AM
19 GOING TO FIRST TAKE UP THREE OF THE MOTIONS AND THOSE ARE 20 THE DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION ON THE 21 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION TO IMPOSE A PUBLIC RIGHT OF USE AND 22 ACCESS BASED ON THE PUBLIC TRUST DOCTRINE ALONE IN WHICH
23 PLAINTIFF SEEKS TO ASSERT ACCESS FROM BOTH THE LANDWARD
24 SIDE AND THE OCEANSIDE OF THE BEACH. AND THEN ALSO TAKE UP
25 AT THE SAME TIME TWO OTHER MOTIONS THAT ARE GROUNDED IN 26 CALIFORNIA CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4. AND THOSE

1 ARE THE PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION ON THE
2 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AND THE DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR 3 SUMMARY ADJUDICATION ON BOTH THE SECOND AND THE SEVENTH
4 CAUSES OF ACTION BOTH OF WHICH ARE GROUNDED IN CALIFORNIA
5 CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4.

6 FOR THE REASONS THAT FOLLOW ON THOSE THREE INITIAL 7 MOTIONS, THE PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION ON 8 THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION TO IMPOSE ACCESS BASED ON THE
9 STATE CONSTITUTION THAT IS DENIED. THE DEFENDANTS' MOTIONS
10 FOR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION ON THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION IS 11 GRANTED AS WELL AS THE DEFENDANTS' MOTION ON THE SEVENTH
12 CAUSE OF ACTION. AND WITH REGARD TO THE FOURTH CAUSE OF 13 ACTION, I AM ALSO GOING TO FIND IN FAVOR OF THE DEFENDANTS
14 ON THAT AND THAT THERE SHOULD BE SUMMARY ADJUDICATION OF 15 THAT. AND I BELIEVE, FOR REASONS THAT I WILL COME TO, THAT 16 THOSE RULINGS ARE COMPLETELY DISPOSITIVE OF THE REST OF THE 17 CASE EXCEPT FOR THE CAUSE OF ACTION THAT ALLEGES AN EXPRESS
18 DEDICATION WHICH I THINK IS THE ONLY ONE THAT IS GOVERNED
19 BY STATE LAW HERE AND I WILL COME TO A RULING ON THAT.

20 IN GENERAL, BEFORE I GET TO TALKING ABOUT WHAT I AM
21 GOING TO FIND AS TO THE FACTS HERE THAT ARE UNDISPUTED AS 22 TO THE LEGAL CONCLUSION THAT I AM GOING TO STATE, AND THE 23 ONE THAT I HAVE REACHED IN GENERAL, THAT CONCLUSION IS THAT 24 THE PLAINTIFFS WHO REFER TO THEMSELVES AS FRIENDS OF 25 MARTINS BEACH THAT WHILE THEY HAVE -- WHILE THEY CLAIM THAT 26 THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO TRAVERSE THE PRIVATE PROPERTY OWNED BY

1 THE DEFENDANTS TO ACCESS THE BEACH THAT THE PRIVATE 2 PROPERTY AT ISSUE IS INDISPUTABLY OWNED IN FEE SIMPLE BY 3 THE DEFENDANT LLC'S THAT ARE HERE AND THAT THE PLAINTIFFS
4 HAVE NO COGNIZABLE LEGAL THEORY WHICH GIVES THEM THE RIGHT
5 TO ACCESS OF THE DEFENDANTS' PRIVATE PROPERTY. THAT IS THE 6 BASIC LEGAL CONCLUSION THAT I REACH IN THIS MATTER.

7 WITH REGARD TO THE FACTS HERE, THERE IS VERY
8 EXTENSIVE EVIDENCE THAT'S BEEN PUT BEFORE ME. YOU KNOW,
9 THERE ARE A NUMBER OF DECLARATIONS, A NUMBER OF STATEMENTS
10 OF FACT THAT HAVE BEEN SUBMITTED BY EACH SIDE. THE 11 DECLARATIONS GENERALLY HAVE, YOU KNOW, MULTIPLE EXHIBITS
12 AND SO FORTH.

13 IN LOOKING AT ALL OF THE EVIDENCE I THINK THE MOST
14 USEFUL STARTING POINT IS THE TITLE SEARCH THAT IS A CHART
15 MARKED AS EXHIBIT D TO THE DECLARATION OF BILL LOFF AND 16 ALSO THE DECLARATION OF DEBBIE DODGE WHO ALSO DID SOME 17 REVIEW OF THE TITLE AND AS TO EACH OF THEIR DECLARATIONS
18 THERE ARE AUTHENTICATED COPIES OF PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT 19 CONSTITUTE THE CHAIN OF TITLE AS WELL. AND STARTING WITH 20 THAT AS WHAT I THINK IS, YOU KNOW, A VERY USEFUL CLUSTER OF 21 EVIDENCE THAT REALLY IS NOT SUBJECT TO DISPUTE HERE, I AM
22 GOING TO FIND THE FOLLOWING TO BE MATERIALLY UNDISPUTED
23 FACTS IN THIS CASE AND THAT IS AS FOLLOWS:

24 THAT THE DEFENDANTS ARE THE OWNERS OF THE REAL
25 PROPERTY THAT'S LOCATED AT 22352 CABRILLO HIGHWAY ALSO 26 KNOWN AS HIGHWAY 1 SOUTH OF HALF MOON BAY. THAT THE

1 DEFENDANTS OBTAINED THAT OWNERSHIP IN A FEE SIMPLE TITLE BY 2 TWO SEPARATE GRANT DEEDS THAT WERE RECORDED ON JULY 22ND,
3 2008. THERE IS A PRIVATE ROAD ON THE PROPERTY, MARTINS
4 BEACH ROAD, THAT LEADS FROM THE ENTRANCE ON CABRILLO
5 HIGHWAY, ALSO KNOWN AS HIGHWAY 1, TO THE BEACH. THE
6 DEFENDANTS' OWNERSHIP HAS ITS ORIGIN IN A SPANISH LAND
7 GRANT TO WHICH THAT OWNERSHIP IS CLEARLY TRACED BACK IN MY 8 OPINION BEYOND DISPUTE AND NOT MATERIALLY DISPUTED BY THE 9 PLAINTIFFS. THE QUESTION IN THE CASE REALLY IS WHAT IS THE 10 SCOPE AND EFFECT OF THAT OWNERSHIP AS AGAINST A CLAIMED 11 RIGHT OF PUBLIC ACCESS.

12 IT'S UNDISPUTED THAT THE PROPERTY WAS ORIGINALLY 13 PART OF A LARGER PARCEL THAT PASSED FROM THE MEXICAN 14 GOVERNMENT INTO PRIVATE OWNERSHIP PRIOR TO THE TIME THAT 15 CALIFORNIA WAS CEDED BY MEXICO TO THE UNITED STATES AFTER 16 THE MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR. IN 1838, THE GOVERNOR OF THEN 17 SPANISH MEXICO, JUAN ALVARADO, PROVISIONALLY GRANTED AN 18 89 -- 8,905 -- I AM SORRY, 8,905 ACRE PARCEL OF PROPERTY
19 THAT WAS NAMED THE RANCHO CANADA DE VERDE ARROYO DE LA
20 PURISIMA AND THAT WAS GRANTED TO JOSE MARIA ALVISO. THE 21 PROPERTY THAT'S INVOLVED IN THIS CASE WAS INCLUDED WITHIN 22 THE AREA THAT WAS KNOWN AS THAT RANCHO. ON APRIL 30TH OF 23 1840, TWO YEARS LATER, JOSE MARIA ALVISO CONVEYED HIS
24 INTEREST IN THE LAND-GRANTED PROPERTIES TO HIS BROTHER JOSE
25 ANTONIO ALVISO. THEREAFTER, A DECADE LATER, THE TREATY OF 26 GUADALUPE HIDALGO - WHICH FORMALLY ENDED THE

1 MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR - RESULTED IN MEXICO CEDING A REGION
2 OF THE PRESENT DAY SOUTHWESTERN UNITED STATES, INCLUDING
3 CALIFORNIA, TO THE UNITED STATES. THAT TREATY ON ITS FACE
4 REQUIRED THAT THE UNITED STATES PROTECT THE PROPERTY RIGHTS
5 OF THE MEXICAN LANDOWNERS LIVING IN THOSE AREAS. SHORTLY
6 AFTER THAT, IN ORDER TO IMPLEMENT THE TREATY, CONGRESS
7 PASSED AN ACT IN MARCH OF 1851, MARCH 3RD, 1851 TO PROVIDE 8 FOR THE ORDERLY SETTLEMENT OF MEXICAN LAND CLAIMS AND 9 CONGRESS CREATED A SYSTEM FOR THAT. A BOARD OF 10 COMMISSIONERS THAT WAS TO ASCERTAIN AND SETTLE THE PRIVATE 11 LAND CLAIMS IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA. THIS WAS COMMONLY 12 KNOWN AS THE BOARD OF CALIFORNIA LAND COMMISSIONERS. THAT 13 BOARD WAS DELEGATED THE AUTHORITY TO DECIDE LAND RIGHTS AND 14 TO ISSUE LAND PATENTS WHICH WERE TO BE A CONCLUSIVE
15 ADJUDICATION OF THE RIGHTS OF THE CLAIMANT AS AGAINST THE 16 RIGHTS OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE PUBLIC AND CITIZENS OF
17 THE UNITED STATES. THE NEXT YEAR IN 1852 JOSE ANTONIO
18 ALVISO FILED A CLAIM FOR THE RANCHERO, THAT HAD BEEN 19 GRANTED TO HIS BROTHER ORIGINALLY, WITH THAT BOARD OF 20 CALIFORNIA LAND COMMISSIONERS AND THAT PATENT WAS ISSUED.

21 THE UNITED STATES THEN FILED AN APPEAL THAT WENT TO 22 THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES THAT WAS RESOLVED IN 23 A PUBLISHED OPINION IN UNITED STATES VERSUS ALVISO IN 1859
24 AT 64 UNITED STATES 318. IT'S A CASE THAT I WILL COME BACK
25 TO AS TO ITS LEGAL SIGNIFICANCE FURTHER ON IN MY RULING
26 HERE WHEN I TALK TO YOU ABOUT THE CONCLUSIONS OF LAW THAT I

1 HAVE REACHED, BUT AS FAR AS THE FACTS OF THE CASE, BY 2 VIRTUE OF THAT PUBLISHED DECISION, IT'S UNDISPUTED THAT 3 JOSE ANTONIO ALVISO'S CLAIM WAS CONFIRMED BY THE UNITED 4 STATES SUPREME COURT AND THAT THAT WAS DONE WITHOUT ANY
5 MENTION OF ANY PUBLIC TRUST EASEMENT. IN 1865 THE LAND
6 GRANT FOR THE RANCHERO WAS THEN SUBJECT TO A FINAL PATENT
7 CONFIRMING THE RIGHT OF THE ALVISO FAMILY IN THE LAND
8 INCLUDING WHAT IS CURRENTLY MARTINS BEACH AND THE ROAD INTO 9 MARTINS BEACH, AND TO THE EXTENT THAT THERE ARE EASEMENTS
10 TIED TO THE TIDELANDS TO THOSE EASEMENTS. I WILL COME TO 11 THIS IN GREATER DETAIL LATER, BUT I THINK I SHOULD NOTE
12 HERE THAT A LAND PATENT ISSUED BY THE BOARD OF LAND
13 COMMISSIONERS IS A QUITCLAIM DEED FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF 14 THE UNITED STATES TO THE CLAIMANT BY WHICH ALL OTHER 15 INTERESTS IN THE LAND THAT MIGHT BE POSSESSED BY THE UNITED 16 STATES OR THE PUBLIC ARE RELINQUISHED AND OR EXTINGUISHED.
17 LAND FROM TITLES NOT CONFORMED -- NOT CONFIRMED BY A LAND
18 PATENT OF THE BOARD OF CALIFORNIA LAND COMMISSIONERS THEN 19 BECAME PART OF THE PUBLIC DOMAIN AND CLEARLY I THINK I CAN 20 JUDICIALLY NOTICE THIS THAT SOME OF THAT LAND OVER THE 21 YEARS REMAINED IN PUBLIC AND SOME WENT TO PRIVATE OWNERSHIP
22 AND THERE IS A MIX OF WHAT ACTUALLY HAPPENED TO IT, BUT THE 23 POINT HERE IS THAT AT THE TIME IN THE 1865 WHEN THE PATENT
24 BECAME FINAL IT CONFIRMED THE ALVISO FAMILY'S INTEREST AND
25 AT NO POINT WAS THERE ANY CONVEYANCE OF THE PROPERTY HERE
26 TO THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

1 THERE ARE ALSO SOME FACTS HERE THAT THE DEFENDANTS,
2 MR. ESSNER AND MS. YOB, YOU HAVE A FOOTNOTE IN ONE OF YOUR 3 MEMOS OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN WHICH YOU RESERVE THE
4 RIGHT TO CONTEST THESE FACTS AT TRIAL. BUT AS A PRACTICAL
5 MATTER I BELIEVE A FAIR READING OF YOUR PAPERS IS THAT YOU
6 DID NOT FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS MOTION OR THESE MOTIONS
7 DISPUTE THEM AND THESE ARE THE FACTS THAT RELATE TO THE 8 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR EXPRESS DEDICATION THAT I WILL
9 COME TO LATER. FOR THE PURPOSES OF MY RULING HERE I AM
10 GOING TO ACCEPT CERTAIN FACTS THAT THE PLAINTIFFS HAVE PUT 11 BEFORE THE COURT AS MATERIALLY UNDISPUTED FOR THE PURPOSES
12 OF THESE MOTIONS BASED ON MOSTLY PLAINTIFF'S EVIDENCE AND 13 THOSE ARE AS FOLLOWS; THAT -- AND CONSISTENT WITH 14 ALLEGATIONS THAT WERE MADE IN YOUR PLEADINGS, MR.
15 REDENBACHER, FOR THE PLAINTIFFS - THAT THE DEENEY FAMILY, 16 THE DEFENDANTS' PREDECESSORS-IN-INTEREST, HAD A LARGE
17 BILLBOARD ALONG HIGHWAY 1 A PUBLIC HIGHWAY FOR MANY YEARS
18 AND IT ADVERTISED MARTINS BEACH AND AS HAS BEEN ARGUED HERE
19 IN EFFECT SAID, YOU KNOW, COME ON INTO OUR BEACH. ALTHOUGH 20 I AM GOING TO FIND THAT IT'S ALSO UNDISPUTED THAT THEY
21 CHARGED A FEE FOR THAT. BUT THAT BILLBOARD WAS THERE
22 ADVERTISING AND GIVING A PERMISSIVE ACCESS ALONG MARTINS
23 BEACH ROAD TO USE THE PARKING AREA AND THE DRY SAND BEACH
24 FOR RECREATIONAL USE AND FISHING AND I BELIEVE THAT THOSE
25 FACTS TO THAT EXTENT ARE NOT DISPUTED HERE. THE DEENEYS
26 DID CONSTRUCT A PARKING LOT. THEY DID CONSTRUCT SOME

1 PUBLIC TOILETS AND THEY OPENED A CONVENIENCE STORE ON THE
2 BEACH THAT CATERED TO THE PUBLIC THAT CAME TO USE THE
3 TIDELANDS. AND THE BILLBOARD OUT IN FRONT ADVERTISED THAT 4 PERMISSIVE USE OF THE PROPERTY AND I BELIEVE AND I AM GOING
5 TO SO FIND THAT THOSE FACTS ARE NOT DISPUTED HERE. BASED 6 ON THOSE FACTS I BELIEVE -- EXCUSE ME. THIS CAN BE OFF THE 7 RECORD FOR A SECOND.

8 (BRIEF PAUSE) .

9 THE COURT: SO AS I WAS SAYING, BASED ON THESE 10 UNDISPUTED FACTS THAT I HAVE JUST RECITED, MY LEGAL 11 CONCLUSIONS ARE THAT THE CASE MAY BE SUMMARILY DECIDED AS A 12 MATTER OF LAW BECAUSE THERE ARE NO TRIABLE ISSUES RAISED
13 HERE: AND IN THAT REGARD THE LEGAL CONCLUSIONS THAT I
14 REACH ON THE FIRST THREE MOTIONS GENERALLY OUTLINED ARE 15 THESE AND THERE ARE THREE MAIN POINTS TO WHAT I AM GOING TO 16 SAY ABOUT THE LAW THAT APPLIES HERE: ONE IS IN MY OPINION
17 AND I AM GOING TO SO FIND BASED ON THE UNDISPUTED FACTS
18 BEFORE ME THAT CALIFORNIA STATE LAW DOES NOT CONTROL HERE
19 BECAUSE OF A SERIES OF UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT
20 DECISIONS THAT ARE PREEMPTIVE IN HOLDING THAT NO PUBLIC
21 RIGHT OF ACCESS EXISTS HERE BECAUSE THE DEFENDANTS' FEDERAL 22 LAND PATENT RIGHTS CARRY THE DAY. THE SECOND MAIN POINT IS 23 THAT ANY COUNTERVAILING PUBLIC RIGHTS UNDER THE CALIFORNIA
24 CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4 DO NOT AND CANNOT
25 OVERRIDE THE FEDERAL LAND PATENT TITLE IN THE DEFENDANTS
26 BECAUSE AS A MATTER OF FEDERAL LAW THAT PATENT ACTED AS A

1 QUIT CLAIM DEED THAT ENDED ANY PREEXISTING PUBLIC ACCESS
2 RIGHTS. AND I RECOGNIZE THAT THE DEFENDANTS HAVE A POINT
3 THAT YOU HAVE MADE THAT CONSTITUTION -- CALIFORNIA
4 CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4 ARGUABLY DOES NOT SAY
5 WHAT THE PLAINTIFF CONTENDS IT SAYS, HOWEVER, I DON'T THINK
6 I NEED TO REACH THAT ISSUE. I THINK THAT EVEN IF YOU
7 ACCEPT THAT ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4 DOES WHAT THE PLAINTIFF
8 CONTENDS, THAT IT CANNOT OVERRIDE THE PRIVATE OWNERSHIP
9 THAT STANDS AS A MATTER OF A FEDERAL LAND PATENT. AND THAT 10 FOR ME TO FIND OTHERWISE WOULD BE TO DISREGARD THE CONTRARY
11 FEDERAL LAW AS TO THOSE LAND PATENT RIGHTS. AND THEREFORE 12 UNDER ANY SCENARIO ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4 DOES NOT GIVE THE 13 PUBLIC RIGHTS THAT PLAINTIFF ADVOCATES FOR HERE BECAUSE 14 THIS HAS BEEN DETERMINED AS A MATTER OF FEDERAL LAW THAT 15 THAT CALIFORNIA CONSTITUTION SECTION DOES NOT AND CANNOT 16 ABROGATE THE PRIVATE OWNERSHIP RIGHTS UNDER THE FEDERAL 17 LAND PATENT. ALSO, AND THIS IS THE THIRD MAJOR POINT, FOR 18 THE COURT -- FOR THIS COURT TO RULE OTHERWISE WOULD CONFER
19 TO THE PUBLIC A RIGHT OF PUBLIC ACCESS WITHOUT ANY EMINENT 20 DOMAIN PROCEEDING, WITHOUT ANY JUST COMPENSATION WHICH IS 21 REQUIRED AS A MATTER OF BOTH FEDERAL AND STATE
22 CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND WOULD CONSTITUTE. IF I RULED
23 OTHERWISE, AN UNLAWFUL TAKING OF THE DEFENDANTS' FEDERAL 24 LAND PATENT OWNERSHIP RIGHTS.

25 AND THERE ARE A NUMBER OF OTHER LEGAL ISSUES THAT
26 ARE RAISED ON ALL THREE OF THESE MOTIONS THAT I HAVE TAKEN

1 UP FIRST. ONE OF THEM FOR EXAMPLE IS THE ONE I MENTIONED
2 THAT HAS TO DO WITH THE DEFENSE CONTENTION THAT ARTICLE 10
3 SECTION 4 DOES NOT ACTUALLY GIVE THE KIND OF PUBLIC ACCESS
4 RIGHTS THAT THE PLAINTIFF ADVOCATES IT DOES. AND THERE ARE 5 OTHER ISSUES LIKE THAT THAT YOU ON THE DEFENSE SIDE, MR.
6 ESSNER AND MS. YOB THAT YOU HAVE RAISED BUT I DON'T THINK I
7 NEED TO REACH THOSE ISSUES BECAUSE THE LEGAL CONCLUSIONS
8 THAT I HAVE REACHED ARE COMPLETELY DISPOSITIVE OF THESE 9 THREE MOTIONS. NOW, ON THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION, ON THE 10 PUBLIC TRUST DOCTRINE CAUSE OF ACTION THAT IS LAID TO REST
11 IN MY OPINION AND I AM GOING TO SO FIND IN UNITED STATES
12 VERSUS ALVISO ITSELF BECAUSE THE UNITED STATES SUPREME 13 COURT CLEARLY CONFIRMED THE EARLIER SPANISH LAND GRANT THAT 14 QUIETED TITLE TO THE PROPERTY IN THE ALVISO FAMILY AND IT
15 DID SO IN THE FACE OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S CLAIMS TO 16 RETAIN A PUBLIC USE AS AGAINST THAT LAND PATENT AND, YOU
17 KNOW, THE COURT --- UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT IN ALVISO
18 RECITES WHAT I HAVE FOUND HERE THE FACT THAT -- THAT THE 19 PROPERTY WHICH NOW IS MARTINS BEACH WAS WITHIN THE RANCHO
20 CANADA DE VERDE ARROYO DE LA PURISIMA. AND IT'S 21 INTERESTING BECAUSE THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT ALSO
22 RECITES THAT IN 1838 WHEN THE LAND GRANT WAS MADE TO JOSE
23 MARIA ALVISO THAT THERE WAS AN ADMINISTRATOR OF WHAT THEY 24 DESCRIBED IN THE DECISION OF THE EX MISSION OF SAN 25 FRANCISCO DE ASSIS WHO WAS DIRECTED TO MAKE A REPORT ON THE 26 SUBJECT AND THAT HAS TO BE A REFERENCE TO MISSION DOLORES.

1 IT IMPLIES THAT THE ALVISOS WENT ALL THE WAY TO SAN 2 FRANCISCO IN THOSE DAYS NO SHORT TRIP TO OBTAIN THE
3 OWNERSHIP OF THE LAND. IN ANY EVENT, THE COURT DID NOT
4 DISTURB THE LAND GRANT RIGHTS AS HAD BEEN CONFIRMED IN THE
5 PATENT PROCESS ESTABLISHED BY CONGRESS AND IT LEFT THE 6 DECREE OF THE DISTRICT COURT IN THAT REGARD IN PLACE AND
7 THAT WAS CONFIRMED AND THAT WAS THE RESULT OF THE ALVISO
8 CASE.

9 THEN YOU GET TO THE QUESTION OF WHAT IS REALLY
10 EFFECT OF THAT HERE, YOU KNOW, WHAT DOES THAT MEAN? AND 11 THAT IS DECIDED IN MY OPINION BY BEARD VERSUS FEDERY A
12 UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT CASE IN 1865 AT 70 U.S. 478
13 WHICH HELD THAT A PATENT OPERATES AS A QUIT CLAIM DEED THAT 14 EXTINGUISHED ANY CLAIMS OF PUBLIC RIGHT BY THE FEDERAL 15 GOVERNMENT AND BY IMPLICATION ANY RIGHTS OF A STATE OF THE 16 UNITED STATES AND OR ITS PEOPLE INCLUDING THE PEOPLE OF THE
17 STATE OF CALIFORNIA. AND SIGNIFICANTLY IN BEARD THE UNITED 18 STATES SUPREME COURT SAID THAT "A PATENT OF THE UNITED 19 STATES ISSUED UPON A CONFIRMATION OF A CLAIM TO LAND BY 20 VIRTUE OF A RIGHT OR TITLE DERIVED FROM SPAIN OR MEXICO IS 21 TO BE REGARDED IN TWO ASPECTS, AS A DEED OF THE UNITED 22 STATES AND AS A RECORD OF THE ACTION OF THE GOVERNMENT UPON 23 THE TITLE OF THE CLAIMANT AS IT EXISTED UPON THE 24 ACQUISITION OF CALIFORNIA. AS A DEED ITS OPERATION IS THAT 25 OF A QUIT CLAIM OR RATHER A CONVEYANCE OF SUCH INTEREST AS 26 THE UNITED STATES POSSESSED IN THE LAND AND IT TAKES EFFECT

1 BY RELATION AT THE TIME WHEN THE PROCEEDINGS WERE
2 INSTITUTED BY THE FILING OF THE PETITION BEFORE THE BOARD
3 OF LAND COMMISSIONERS. AS A RECORD TO THE GOVERNMENT IT IS 4 EVIDENCE THAT THE CLAIM ASSERTED WAS VALID UNDER THE LAWS
5 OF MEXICO AND IT WAS ENTITLED TO RECOGNITION AND PROTECTION
6 BY THE STIPULATIONS OF THE TREATY AND MIGHT HAVE BEEN
7 LOCATED UNDER THE FORMER GOVERNMENT AND IS CORRECTLY
8 LOCATED NOW AS TO EMBRACE THE PREMISES THAT ARE SURVEYED
9 AND DESCRIBED IN THIS CASE MEANING THE ALVISO CASE. AS 10 AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT AND PARTIES CLAIMING UNDER THE 11 GOVERNMENT THIS RECORD SO LONG AS IT REMAINS UNVACATED IS 12 CONCLUSIVE."

13 AND SO AS TO THE PUBLIC TRUST DOCTRINE THEORY HERE
14 I SUBMIT TO YOU THAT IT'S CORRECT THAT IN ALVISO AND IN THE 15 BEARD CASE IF YOU READ THOSE TOGETHER WHAT THE SUPREME 16 COURT WAS SAYING IS THAT A CLAIM EXACTLY LIKE THE ONE
17 THAT'S BEING MADE HERE NOW WAS EXTINGUISHED BY VIRTUE OF 18 THE LAND PATENT TO THE ALVISO FAMILY EXTINGUISHED AND IT
19 DOESN'T MATTER THAT THIS CLAIM IS BEING MADE ALL THESE
20 YEARS LATER. DOESN'T MATTER. IF THIS CLAIM HAD BEEN MADE
21 IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE LAND PATENT WAS CONFIRMED AND ITS 22 QUIT CLAIM EFFECT DECLARED IN THESE CASES BACK IN THOSE 23 YEARS, IT'S CLEAR THAT THERE WOULD BE SUMMARY JUDGMENT OR 24 IN A FEDERAL CASE A 12(B) MOTION FOR DISMISSAL AS HOW IT
25 WAS MADE BEFORE THE RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE CAME INTO 26 EFFECT IN THE FEDERAL COURT. IT'S CLEAR THAT THAT CLAIM

1 WOULD NOT HAVE GONE ANYWHERE AND THERE ISN'T ANY REASON WHY
2 THESE DECISIONS FROM THE SUPREME COURT OF THE LAND THAT I
3 AM OBLIGATED TO FOLLOW, THEY ARE NOT ADVISORY. ALL THE
4 OTHER FEDERAL DECISIONS ARE ADVISORY. IF THE NINTH CIRCUIT
5 SAYS SOMETHING, IF THE DISTRICT COURT SAYS SOMETHING ABOUT
6 CALIFORNIA LAW IT'S JUST ADVISORY. BUT THIS IS BINDING ON 7 THE STATE COURTS AND SO THERE IS AN OBLIGATION TO FOLLOW
8 THESE DECISIONS. AND SO AS A MATTER OF FEDERAL LAW THERE
9 CAN BE NO ACCESS HERE BY THE PUBLIC BASED ON THE PUBLIC
10 TRUST DOCTRINE. SO THEN -- AND THAT MEANS THAT THERE IS 11 SUMMARY ADJUDICATION AS TO THE MOTION ON THE FOURTH CAUSE
12 OF ACTION; THAT IS GRANTED.

13 THEN YOU GET TO WHAT ABOUT ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4 AND 14 THIS IS WHERE MR. REDENBACHER AND I -- YOU KNOW, I THINK
15 ONE THING I THINK IN THIS CASE IS THAT YOUR PLEADINGS HERE
16 ARE REALLY A MODEL OF PLEADING. THEY ARE VERY BRIEF. THEY
17 ARE VERY SUCCINCT. THEY ARE VERY, VERY ARTFULLY DONE. YOU
18 COULDN'T ASK FOR A BETTER CONCISE STATEMENT OF WHAT IT IS 19 THAT THE PLAINTIFFS BELIEVE WHY THEY ARE ENTITLED TO THIS 20 PUBLIC ACCESS. AND SO YOU BASE A RIGHT OF ACCESS ON 21 CONSTITUTION, STATE CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4 WHICH 22 BASICALLY SAYS THAT SINCE THE STATE HAS AN OWNERSHIP OF 23 TIDELANDS UNDER THAT CONSTITUTIONAL SECTION THAT 24 HAND-IN-HAND WITH THAT GOES A RIGHT OF ACCESS BOTH FROM THE 25 LANDWARD SIDE AND THE OCEAN SIDE BY VIRTUE OF THE ROAD
26 GOING IN AND BY VIRTUE ON WHAT YOU ALLEGE AND REFER TO IN

1 YOUR MOTION PAPERS AS, YOU KNOW, THE INLAND BEACH AREA THAT
2 IS FRONTING ON THE OCEAN AND THAT THERE IS THEREFORE ACCESS
3 FROM THE OCEAN FROM THE TIDELANDS, THAT IS WHAT THOSE 4 ALLEGATIONS BOIL DOWN TO AND IT'S WHY THEY'RE STATED IN TWO 5 SEPARATE CAUSES OF ACTION I BELIEVE UNLESS I MISREAD YOUR 6 PLEADINGS.

7 SO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE IN THAT REGARD IS 8 REALLY ONLY A RESTATEMENT, A CODIFICATION IF YOU WILL A 9 CONSTITUTIONAL RATHER THAN STATUTORY CODIFICATION - OF THE 10 PREEXISTING PUBLIC TRUST DOCTRINE AS IT RELATES TO THE 11 TIDELANDS AND WHAT RIGHTS FLOW FROM THE TIDELANDS. AND 12 THEREFORE, BECAUSE OF THE ALVISO CASE AND THE BEARD CASE
13 AND WHAT THEY SAY, THE RESULT IS THAT AS A MATTER OF 14 FEDERAL LAW THE PUBLIC TRUST DOCTRINE AS RESTATED IN THE 15 CONSTITUTION AS IT OPERATES OFF OF THE TIDELANDS CANNOT 16 CARRY THE DAY HERE AND THAT WAS WHAT WAS EXPRESSLY HELD IN 17 SUMMA CORPORATION. NOW, I RECOGNIZE THAT IN SUMMA
18 CORPORATION AT 104 -- I AM SORRY AT 467 U.S. 1231 THIS IS A 19 1984 CASE I RECOGNIZE THAT JUSTICE REHNQUIST TALKS ABOUT 20 THE ISSUE THERE AS AN ISSUE OF THE PUBLIC TRUST DOCTRINE
21 BUT IT'S PRETTY CLEAR FROM READING THE FACTS THAT ARE 22 RECITED IN THE DECISION THAT THE -- THAT THE PUBLIC
23 ENTITIES' POSITION WAS GROUNDED IN THE IDEA THAT THERE WERE 24 RIGHTS THAT -- THAT CREATED AN EASEMENT OR ACCESS IN THE 25 BALLONA LAGOON NEAR VENICE, CALIFORNIA THAT WERE ROOTED IN 26 THE STATE CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 10 SECTION 4 AND SO WHILE ON

1 ITS FACE THE CASE READS IN TERMS OF PUBLIC TRUST DOCTRINE I
2 AM RELYING ON IT ALSO, SINCE I BELIEVE THAT THE STATE
3 CONSTITUTION SECTIONS ARE SIMPLY A RESTATEMENT OF THE 4 PUBLIC TRUST DOCTRINE AS IT PREEXISTED SPECIFICALLY WITH 5 RESPECT TO TIDELAND ACCESS RIGHTS. I AM RELYING ON IT
6 PRIMARILY FOR THE PROPOSITION THAT SUMMA CORPORATION HOLDS,
7 THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT HOLDS IN THAT CASE THAT 8 AGAIN THE LAND PATENT HERE PREVAILS AS A MATTER OF FEDERAL
9 LAW AND THAT WAS THE RESULT. YOU KNOW, THERE IS SOME BACK
10 AND FORTH ABOUT WHETHER THE LAGOON REALLY WAS A TIDELAND
11 AND -- AND SO FORTH BUT -- BUT THE CASE ACTUALLY GETS 12 DECIDED ON THE ISSUE THAT THE COURT STATED AS FOLLOWS:
13 THIS IS WHAT JUSTICE REHNQUIST WROTE IN THE DECISION AT 14 PAGE 205 "THE QUESTION WE FACE IS WHETHER A PROPERTY
15 INTEREST SO SUBSTANTIALLY IN DEROGATION OF THE FEE INTEREST
16 PATENTED TO THE PETITIONERS PREDECESSORS CAN SURVIVE THE 17 PATENT PROCEEDINGS CONDUCTED PURSUANT TO THE STATUTE
18 IMPLEMENTING THE TREATY OF GUADALUPE HIDALGO. WE THINK IT
19 CANNOT. THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OF COURSE CANNOT DISPOSE OF 20 A RIGHT POSSESSED BY THE STATE UNDER THE EQUAL FOOTING
21 DOCTRINE OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION THUS AN ORDINARY
22 FEDERAL PATENT PURPORTING TO CONVEY TIDELANDS LOCATED
23 WITHIN A STATE TO A PRIVATE INDIVIDUAL IS INVALID SINCE THE 24 UNITED STATES HOLDS SUCH TIDELANDS ONLY IN TRUST FOR THE 25 STATE BUT THE COURT IN BORAX, THAT IS A PRIOR SUPREME COURT
26 DECISION IN 1935, THAT THE COURT REFERS TO BUT THE COURT IN

1 BORAX CHIEF JUSTICE REHNQUIST SAYS, "RECOGNIZED THAT A
2 DIFFERENT RESULT WOULD FOLLOW IF THE PRIVATE LANDS HAD BEEN 3 PATENTED UNDER THE 1851 ACT. PATENTS CONFIRMED UNDER THE
4 AUTHORITY OF 1851 ACT WERE ISSUED PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY
5 RESERVED TO THE UNITED STATES TO ENABLE IT TO DISCHARGE ITS 6 INTERNATIONAL DUTY WITH RESPECT TO THE LAND WHICH ALTHOUGH 7 TIDELAND HAD NOT PASSED TO THE STATE. THIS FUNDAMENTAL
8 DISTINCTION REFLECTS AN IMPORTANT ASPECT OF THE 1851 ACT
9 ENACTED BY CONGRESS. WHILE THE 1851 ACT WAS INTENDED TO 10 IMPLEMENT THIS COUNTRY'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE TREATY OF 11 GUADALUPE HIDALGO THE 1851 ACT ALSO SERVED AN OVERRIDING
12 PURPOSE OF PROVIDING REPOSE TO LAND TITLES THAT ORIGINATED
13 WITH THE MEXICAN GRANTS." THEN THE COURT GOES ON INTO SOME 14 OTHER THINGS ABOUT SUTTER'S MILL AND THE GOLD RUSH AND 15 EXPLOITATION AND THEN IT SAYS THIS, JUSTICE REHNQUIST SAYS
16 THIS "THE 1851 ACT" -- THIS IS ON PAGE 206 -- "WAS INTENDED
17 TO PLACE THE TITLES TO LAND IN CALIFORNIA ON A STABLE
18 FOUNDATION AND TO GIVE THE PARTIES WHO POSSESSED THEM AN 19 OPPORTUNITY OF PLACING THEM ON THE RECORDS OF THIS COUNTRY
20 IN A MANNER AND FORM THAT WOULD PREVENT FUTURE CONTROVERSY.
21 CALIFORNIA ARGUES THAT SINCE ITS PUBLIC TRUST SERVITUDE IS 22 A SOVEREIGN RIGHT THAT INTEREST DID NOT HAVE TO BE RESERVED
23 EXPRESSLY ON THE FEDERAL PATENT TO SURVIVE THE CONFIRMATION
24 PROCEEDINGS." THEN THE COURT GOES ONTO REJECT CALIFORNIA'S 25 POSITION IN THAT REGARD AND REMAND THIS CASE TO THE STATE
26 COURTS AND IN DOING SO TOWARD THE END OF THE DECISION

1 JUSTICE REHNQUIST SAYS, "WE HOLD THAT CALIFORNIA CANNOT AT 2 THIS LATE DATE ASSERT ITS PUBLIC TRUST EASEMENT OVER 3 PETITIONER'S PROPERTY WHEN PETITIONER'S PREDECESSORS IN 4 INTEREST HAD THEIR INTEREST CONFIRMED WITHOUT ANY MENTION
5 OF SUCH AN EASEMENT IN THE PROCEEDINGS TAKEN PURSUANT TO
6 THE ACT OF 1851. THE INTEREST CLAIMED BY CALIFORNIA IS ONE
7 OF SUCH SUBSTANTIAL MAGNITUDE THAT REGARDLESS OF THE FACT
8 THAT THE CLAIM IS ASSERTED BY THE STATE IN A SOVEREIGN
9 CAPACITY THIS INTEREST LIKE THE INDIAN CLAIMS MADE IN 10 BARKER AND UNITED STATES VERSUS TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST
11 COMPANY MUST HAVE BEEN PRESENTED IN THE PATENT PROCEEDING
12 OR BE BARRED. ACCORDINGLY, THE JUDGMENT OF THE SUPREME 13 COURT OF CALIFORNIA IS REVERSED AND THE CASE IS REMANDED TO
15 THIS OPINION."

16 NOW, ON REMAND AND IT'S KIND OF A COMPLICATED
17 HISTORY. THE SUMMA CASE ON REMAND IS TURNED OVER BY THE 18 CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT TO THE SECOND DISTRICT IN LOS
19 ANGELES WHICH WRITES CITY OF LOS ANGELES VERSUS VENICE
20 PENINSULA PROPERTIES A 1988 CASE AT 205 CAL. APP. 3RD 1522
21 AND I AM NOT GOING TO BELABOR A DISCUSSION OF CITY OF LOS 22 ANGELES VERSUS VENICE HERE. I RECOGNIZE THAT YOU EACH HAVE 23 DIFFERENT THINGS THAT YOU SEE IN THIS DECISION, THAT EACH
24 SIDE BELIEVES HELP ITS CASE. I THINK A FAIR READING OF THE 25 DECISION IS THAT THE COURT, THE SECOND STRICT COURT OF 26 APPEAL, IN CITY OF VENICE ADHERED TO THE SUMMA DECISION

1 BECAUSE ON PAGE 1532 THE COURT SAYS THIS, "THE ABOVE CITED
2 CASES" -- REFER TO SOME OTHER CASES ABOVE COURT SAYS -- 3 "THE ABOVE CITED CASES ARE A COMPLETE ANSWER TO THE STATE'S
4 ARGUMENT HERE THAT ONLY FEE TITLE WAS SETTLED BY THE PATENT
5 PROCESS AND THAT THE PUBLIC TRUST EASEMENT EXISTS
6 INDEPENDENT OF THAT PATENT PROCESS. IT IS DIFFICULT FOR US
7 TO SEE HOW THE PATENT CAN BE DESCRIBED AS SETTLING IN THE
8 GUARANTEE A FULL AND COMPLETE TITLE WHILE AT THE SAME TIME
9 HOLDING THAT IT WAS BURDENED BY A SERVITUDE OF THE 10 MAGNITUDE OF THAT ASSERTED BY THE STATE IN THIS CASE. IT
11 IS MUCH AS CALIFORNIA NEVER ACQUIRED SOVEREIGN TITLE TO 12 LAND WHICH WAS THE SUBJECT OF A PRIOR GRANT BY THE MEXICAN 13 GOVERNMENT THE PUBLIC TRUST EASEMENT WHICH IS AN ADJUNCT OF 14 SOVEREIGNTY AND A CREATURE OF THE UNITED STATES AND 15 CALIFORNIA LAW NEVER AROSE."

16 ALSO AS THE DEFENSE ARGUED THE OTHER DAY MR.
17 REDENBACHER YOUR THEORY THAT MEXICAN LAW AND THE CIVIL
18 NAPOLEONIC CODE MAKES A DIFFERENCE WAS COMPLETELY REJECTED
19 BY THE SECOND DISTRICT IN THIS CASE WHICH SAID THAT THAT 20 ARGUMENT THAT CONTENTION WHICH WAS MADE IN CITY OF LOS 21 ANGELES VERSUS VENICE PENINSULA HAS BEEN LAID TO REST BY 22 DECISIONS OF THE UNITED STATES AND CALIFORNIA APPEAL
23 COURTS. SO THAT'S AN ISSUE THAT I DON'T NEED TO REACH AS 24 TO WHAT THE CIVIL CODE PROVIDED FOR IN THE NAPOLEONIC CODE
25 ADOPTED BY MEXICO.

26 SO THAT BRINGS ME TO MY THIRD MAIN CONCLUSION OF

1 LAW HERE AND THAT IS THAT IF I WERE TO RULE OTHERWISE AND 2 AS I SAID I AM GRANTING THE SUMMARY ADJUDICATION MOTIONS ON 3 THESE FIRST THREE MOTIONS THAT I HAVE ISOLATED ON THE
4 FOURTH, SECOND AND SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION. IT WOULD BE
5 COMPLETELY CONTRARY TO THE WHOLE STRUCTURE OF EMINENT
6 DOMAIN. AND THERE IS AN EXTREMELY SIGNIFICANT ASPECT TO 7 THIS THAT NEITHER OF YOU MENTION IN YOUR PAPERS AND THAT IS 8 THE SUPREME COURT'S RECENT DECISION IN A CASE -- THAT I AM
9 BLANK ON THE NAME OF RIGHT NOW BUT IT WAS VERY, VERY FAMOUS 10 AND YOU WILL KNOW THE NAME OF IT -- THAT SAYS UNDER CERTAIN
11 CIRCUMSTANCES A PRIVATE PARTY MAY BE AUTHORIZED TO EXERCISE
12 THAT EMINENT DOMAIN POWER. FOR EXAMPLE, IF YOU HAVE A
13 PRIVATE DEVELOPER WHO'S WORKING WITH THE CITY TO CREATE LOW
14 COST HOUSING THAT PRIVATE DEVELOPER CAN ACTUALLY BRING THE 15 EMINENT DOMAIN CASE UNDER THE CASE THAT WAS RECENTLY
16 DECIDED IN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT. I DON'T KNOW
17 IF ANY OF YOU REMEMBER THE --

18 MS. YOB: THE KOONTZ DECISION. K-O-O-N-T-Z.

19 THE COURT: ALL RIGHT. AT ANY RATE THAT WILL HAVE
20 TO BE FILLED-IN SIN THE FORM OF ORDER. NOW, WHY I MENTION
21 THAT IS THAT, YOU KNOW, IT RECOGNIZES EVEN THOUGH THERE WAS 22 A LOT OF FUROR ABOUT HANDING THAT AUTHORITY OVER TO PRIVATE 23 PEOPLE TO BRING EMINENT DOMAIN ACTIONS, IT RECOGNIZES, THE 24 SIGNIFICANCE AND IMPORTANCE OF THE REQUIREMENT OF EMINENT 25 DOMAIN AND THAT THERE BE JUST COMPENSATION FOR THE TAKING 26 OF PRIVATE PROPERTY. HOW SIGNIFICANT IT IS TO HAVE -- FOR

1 THE SUPREME COURT TO HAVE HELD THAT EVEN A PRIVATE PARTY
2 CAN BE HELD TO THE OBLIGATION OF BRINGING SUCH AN ACTION TO 3 ASSURE THAT THERE IS JUST COMPENSATION AND I THINK THAT 4 THIS POINT, IF I DECIDED OTHERWISE IT WOULD REALLY HARM AND
5 BE CONTRARY TO EMINENT DOMAIN LAW, IS EXTREMELY WELL STATED
6 IN THE REPLY FILED BY THE DEFENDANTS ON SEPTEMBER 20TH OF 7 THIS YEAR WHERE ON PAGE 2 IN YOUR LEGAL ARGUMENT YOU TALK
8 ABOUT THIS AND THERE IS JUST A COUPLE PAGES THERE ON PAGES
9 2 AND 3 WHERE YOU STATE VERY SUCCINCTLY WHY THE COURT
10 CANNOT IN THIS CASE RECOGNIZE A RIGHT OF PUBLIC ACCESS
11 ABSENT JUST COMPENSATION OF PROPERTY HERE. AND YOU CITE
12 STATE CASES INCLUDING THE MOST FAMOUS ONE THAT I AM 13 FAMILIAR WITH IS APTOS VERSUS SEA SCAPE CORPORATION AND THE 14 COUNTY OF SANTA CRUZ WHICH IS A 1982 CASE AT 138 CAL. APP.
15 3D 484 AT 505 TO 506. BUT I BELIEVE THAT YOUR STATEMENT OF 16 THIS ISSUE IS SO GOOD THAT I AM GOING TO ADOPT WHAT YOU SAY
17 THERE AND RATHER THAN MY READING IT AND REPEATING IT HERE
18 VERBATIM JUST INDICATE THAT THOSE TWO PAGES, THEY MIGHT 19 HAVE TO BE ADJUSTED A LITTLE BIT, ARE GOING TO FORM PART OF 20 MY CONCLUSIONS OF LAW HERE. SO THOSE ARE THE REASONS THAT 21 I THINK AND AM GOING TO RULE THAT THE SUMMARY ADJUDICATION
22 MOTION ON THOSE THREE CAUSES OF ACTION THE SECOND, THE 23 FOURTH AND THE SEVENTH THOSE ARE GRANTED IN FAVOR OF THE 24 PLAINTIFF ON YOUR MOTIONS AND ON THE -- I AM SORRY IN FAVOR
25 OF THE DEFENDANTS, ON THE DEFENDANTS, ON YOUR MOTIONS AND 26 AS TO THE PLAINTIFF'S CROSS MOTION ON THE SECOND CAUSE OF

1 ACTION THAT IS DENIED AND THOSE WILL BE MY RULINGS ON 2 THOSE.

3 I DON'T HAVE THAT MUCH MORE TO SAY. I AM ALMOST 4 DONE HERE. NOW, ONE THING THAT FOLLOWS FROM THOSE 5 RULINGS -- ONE THING THAT FOLLOWS FROM THOSE RULINGS IS 6 THAT ON THE MOTIONS THAT THE DEFENSE HAS MADE FOR SUMMARY
7 ADJUDICATION AS TO THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION FOR AN 8 INJUNCTION, THE FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION AS TO PREEXISTING USE
9 AND THE SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION FOR DECLARATORY RELIEF, BY 10 VIRTUE OF WHAT I HAVE RULED AS TO THE IMPACT OF THE FEDERAL 11 LAW ON THIS THE MOTION FOR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION ON THOSE 12 CAUSES OF ACTION IS GRANTED IN FAVOR OF THE DEFENDANTS.

13 AND THAT DISPOSSESS OF THE ENTIRE CASE EXCEPT FOR 14 THE THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR A DECLARATION OF PUBLIC
15 ACCESS RIGHTS ON A THEORY OF EXPRESS DEDICATION. AND THIS 16 IS BASICALLY ROOTED IN THE UNDISPUTED FACTS OF WHAT THE 17 DEENEYS DID WITH THE PROPERTY WHEN THEY HAD A SIGN OUT
18 THERE. I AGREE WITH THE PLAINTIFF'S POSITION THAT THAT 19 SIGN CAN REASONABLY BE TAKEN AS A WRITING AND IT'S CLEAR 20 THAT THE DEENEYS CONSENTED TO HAVING THE PUBLIC COME IN.
21 THEY BUILT THE FACILITIES THAT ARE THERE SO THE PUBLIC
22 COULD DO THAT. IT'S CLEAR THAT ALL OF THAT WAS PRIMARILY 23 FOR A RECREATIONAL USE AND THAT APPEARS TO ME TO BE 24 UNDISPUTED. BUT THAT DOES NOT IN MY OPINION CONSTITUTE AN 25 EXPRESS DEDICATION WHICH NORMALLY TAKES A DEED AND NORMALLY
26 OPERATES OFF OF A HISTORY OF USE AND ACCESS THAT IS

1 SOMETHING OTHER THAN ON A PERMISSIVE BASIS WITH A CHARGE
2 FOR THAT AND WHAT I AM GOING TO FIND IS THAT UNDER THE
3 APPLICABLE CASE LAW, WITHOUT BELABORING THE POINT HERE, THE 4 CASES YOU HAVE ALL CITED THEM AND ARGUED THEM IN YOUR 5 PAPERS, THAT THE CASES ON THIS I THINK CALL FOR THIS 6 CONCLUSION: AND THAT IS THAT THE DEENEYS BASED ON THE 7 FACTS TAKEN AS THE PLAINTIFF HAS SET THEM OUT AS TO WHAT 8 THEY DID AND HAVING THE BILLBOARD THERE, BUILDING THE 9 FACILITIES AND SO FORTH, ALL THAT WAS GOING ON THERE WAS 10 COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING THAT WAS BEING USED IN FURTHERANCE 11 OF AND IN THE EXERCISE OF THE PRIVATE OWNERSHIP RIGHTS THAT 12 GO BACK TO THE FEDERAL LAND PATENT. AND THAT COMMERCIAL
13 ADVERTISING DID NOT CONSTITUTE ANY KIND OF AN EXPRESS 14 DEDICATION OF EITHER THE ROAD OR ACCESS FROM THE OCEAN IN 15 FAVOR OF A PUBLIC ACCESS OF THE PUBLIC AND SO I AM GOING TO 16 GRANT THE MOTION FOR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION IN FAVOR OF THE
17 DEFENDANTS ON THAT. AND I HAVE ONE OTHER AUTHORITY I AM
18 GOING TO RELY ON AND THERE IS TWO AUTHORITIES IN THIS CASE.
19 ONE IS THE ORANGE COUNTY DECISION WHICH IS UNPUBLISHED AND 20 THE OTHER IS THE CITY OF WATSONVILLE CASE THAT I MENTIONED
21 FROM TIME TO TIME WHICH IS ALSO UNPUBLISHED. BUT I NOW
22 HAVE THE SLIP OPINION FROM JULY 23RD, 1971 OF THE FIRST
23 APPELLATE DISTRICT, DIVISION 3, IN CITY OF WATSONVILLE
24 VERSUS ANTHONY RESETAR WHICH IS 1 CIVIL 26538. THE STATE
25 SUPREME COURT NUMBER ON THE PETITION FOR HEARING THAT WAS 26 LATER DENIED IS SUPREME COURT NUMBER 37612.

1 IN THE INTERVENING TIME WHILE A MEMORANDUM DECISION
2 AND ORDER IS BEING PREPARED IN THIS I AM GOING TO BE
3 WRITING THE FIRST DISTRICT AND THE DISTRICT THAT DECIDED 4 THE ORANGE COUNTY CASE AND ASK THE PRESIDING JUSTICES TO 5 ORDER PUBLICATION OF THESE ON THE BASIS THAT THEY ARE VERY
6 HELPFUL IN DECIDING THIS KIND OF ISSUE AND I WANT THEM
7 PUBLISHED SO THAT I CAN RELY ON THEM IN THIS DECISION AND 8 WE WILL SEE WHAT HAPPENS. BUT WHAT I INTEND TO DO IS 9 ATTACH A COPY OF THIS SLIP OPINION AS AN EXHIBIT TO THE 10 MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER THAT COMES OUT OF MY 11 STATEMENT OF THE RULING TODAY.

12 WHY THIS CASE SUPPORTS THE IDEA THAT THE 13 ADVERTISING AND THE PUBLIC USING THE ROAD DURING THE 14 DEENEYS OWNERSHIP DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A DEDICATION IS THIS.
15 THIS CASE IS THE OBVERSE OF YOUR CASE. THE CITY OF 16 WATSONVILLE CASE IS ONE WHERE THE SPANISH LAND GRANT RIGHTS
17 WENT TO A PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST OF THE CITY OF 18 WATSONVILLE FOR THE RANCHO CORRALITOS IN SANTA CRUZ COUNTY.
19 THERE CAME A TIME LATER ON WHERE THE CITY BOUGHT THE PINTO
20 LAKE FROM THE WATSONVILLE WATER AND LIGHT COMPANY AND THAT 21 PREDECESSOR'S TITLE WENT BACK TO THE SPANISH LAND GRANT OF
22 THE RANCHO CORRALITOS. IN THE INTERVENING YEARS PRIOR TO 23 THE FILING OF THIS QUIET TITLE ACTION OF CITY OF 24 WATSONVILLE VERSUS ANTHONY RESEAR THE POWER LIGHT COMPANY
25 HAD SOLD WATER TO THE FARMERS IN THE AREA. THERE WAS THIS 26 SUPPLY OF WATER GOING ON AND THAT WAS AT FIRST ON A

1 SPORADIC BASIS BUT IT BECAME SOMETHING DONE MUCH MORE
2 FREQUENTLY AND SO THE ISSUE IN THE CASE WAS WHETHER OR NOT
3 BY VIRTUE OF DOING THAT THERE HAD BEEN AN ABANDONMENT OF
4 THE SPANISH LAND GRANT RIGHTS THAT THE CITY OF WATSONVILLE
5 NOW HELD BECAUSE THAT SALE OF WATER WAS AN EXPRESS
6 DEDICATION OF THAT LAKE TO PRIVATE USES. THAT WAS THE 7 ISSUE THAT JUDGE FRANICH, THE TRIAL JUDGE, DECIDED.

8 JUDGE FRANICH DECIDED THAT THERE WAS NO SUCH
9 EXPRESS DEDICATION AND THE FIRST DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
10 AFFIRMED THAT AND THERE WAS A PETITION TO THE STATE SUPREME 11 COURT. I WORKED ON THE RESPONSE AS A LAW CLERK IN THE 12 SUMMER OF 1971 AND IN OCTOBER OF 1971 THAT PETITION WAS 13 DENIED AND JUDGE FRANICH'S DECISION BECAME FINAL AND THE 14 LAKE WAS QUIETED TITLE FOR PUBLIC USE.

15 I MENTION THAT ON THE ISSUE OF EXPRESS DEDICATION
16 BECAUSE WHAT IS SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE IS SAUCE FOR THE GANDER
17 HERE. IF THAT IS THE RESULT FOR A PUBLIC ENTITY HOLDING 18 TITLE UNDER A SPANISH LAND GRANT AND PATENT PROCESS IT HAS 19 TO BE THE SAME FOR PRIVATE OWNERS WHO HAVE THE SAME KIND OF 20 OWNERSHIP HERE AND THAT CASE I BELIEVE ALSO SUPPORTS MY 21 CONCLUSION. THAT THE COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING HERE, JUST AS 22 THE COMMERCIAL SALE OF WATER IN THE WATSONVILLE VERSUS 23 RESEAR CASE DOES NOT ESTABLISH AN EXPRESS DEDICATION BY 24 ANY STRETCH OF THE IMAGINATION.

25 NOW, THERE ARE SOME THINGS THAT I CANNOT FULLY
26 STATE TODAY THAT I NEED TO DO BUT AT ANY RATE SO THE THIRD

1 CAUSE OF ACTION THE DEFENSE MOTION FOR SUMMARY ADJUDICATION
2 IS GRANTED BY VIRTUE OF THAT THE DEFENSE HAS IN EFFECT A
3 SUMMARY JUDGMENT IN THE CASE GRANTED IN YOUR FAVOR.

4 THE REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE THAT HAVE BEEN MADE
5 THOSE ARE GRANTED. THE OBJECTIONS TO THOSE ARE OVERRULED.

6 AS TO THE EVIDENCE THERE'S BEEN OBJECTIONS BY EACH
7 PARTY TO THE FACTS AND EVIDENCE OFFERED BY THE OTHER PARTY.
8 FOR THE MOST PART THOSE ARE OVERRULED WITH SOME EXCEPTIONS
9 TO THAT BUT THEY ARE MOSTLY OVERRULED WITH SOME GRANTED.
10 AND I AM GOING TO STATE SPECIFIC RULINGS IN A SEPARATE
11 WRITTEN ORDER WHILE A MORE FORMAL MEMORANDUM DECISION AND 12 ORDER THAT GRANTS JUDGMENT IN THE DEFENDANTS' FAVOR IS 13 BEING PREPARED.

14 THE TRIAL DATE HERE WILL STAND VACATED AND IS 15 ORDERED OFF CALENDAR AND I AM GOING TO TALK TO YOU IN A
16 MINUTE ABOUT WHETHER YOU WANT THE MANDATORY SETTLEMENT
17 CONFERENCE TO REMAIN ON CALENDAR OR NOT. WE WILL TALK
18 ABOUT THAT BUT BEFORE I COME TO THAT THE LAST THING I THINK
19 I NEED TO DO IS ASK DEFENSE COUNSEL IF YOU WOULD PREPARE A 20 WRITTEN MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER STATING THE RULING
21 THAT I HAVE MADE.

22 I WOULD LIKE YOU TO INCLUDE IN THAT EARLY ON A
23 SENTENCE THAT SAYS THAT THE COURT HAS REVIEWED -- LET ME
24 START OVER AGAIN. A SENTENCE THAT SAYS, "IN ARRIVING AT 25 ITS RULINGS ON THESE MOTIONS THAT THE COURT HAS REVIEWED 26 AND CONSIDERED THE MOTION PAPERS THAT ARE LISTED ON THE

1 ATTACHED EXHIBIT NO. 1 AND I WILL DRAW UP A LIST THAT 2 CAPTURES EVERYTHING THAT I HAVE REVIEWED AND SO THERE WILL 3 BE A CLEAR RECORD OF THE FACT THAT I HAVE REVIEWED ALL THE 4 MOTION PAPERS, ALL THIS SEPARATE STATEMENTS, THE
5 DECLARATIONS, THE EXHIBITS, AND SO FORTH. AND THEN I
6 HAVEN'T BEEN ABLE BECAUSE TIME DID NOT REALLY PERMIT ME TO 7 DO IT TO MAKE REFERENCES TO SPECIFIC STATEMENTS OF FACT
8 THAT ARE UNDISPUTED IN THE STATEMENTS OR EXHIBITS OTHER
9 THAN WHAT I SAID ABOUT THE TITLE SEARCHES IN REFERENCE TO 10 THE FINDINGS THAT I MADE ABOUT WHAT THE UNDISPUTED FACTS
11 ARE AND I BELIEVE THAT THOSE NEED TO BE TIED TO THE 12 EVIDENCE AND THAT SHOULD BE PART OF THE PROPOSED -- JUST, 13 YOU KNOW, PARENTHETIC REFERENCE -- THAT SHOULD BE PART OF 14 THE PROPOSED MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER THAT I AM ASKING 15 YOU TO PREPARE AND I THINK THAT'S ALL THAT I NEED TO DO.

16 THE OTHER THING IS THAT HAVING GRANTED A SUMMARY
17 JUDGMENT I AM ALSO GOING TO ORDER THAT A JUDGMENT OF 18 DISMISSAL, A SUMMARY JUDGMENT OF DISMISSAL IN FAVOR OF THE 19 DEFENDANTS WILL BE ENTERED UPON THE FILING OF THE 20 MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER THAT'S GOING TO BE PREPARED
21 AND FINALIZED AND SO I WOULD LIKE DEFENSE COUNSEL TO ALSO 22 PREPARE A FORM OF SUMMARY JUDGMENT WITH PREJUDICE. THE 23 DISMISSAL WILL BE WITH PREJUDICE DEFENDANTS TO HAVE THEIR 24 COSTS OF SUIT IN THIS CASE SUBJECT TO THE FILING OF AN 25 APPROPRIATE MEMORANDUM OF COSTS.

26 AND I THINK THAT WHAT WE SHOULD DO BECAUSE I

1 RECOGNIZE THAT THE CASE IS VERY IMPORTANT TO BOTH PARTIES
2 HERE, I RECOGNIZE THAT THE LIKELIHOOD OF APPELLATE REVIEW
3 BEING SOUGHT IS EXTREMELY HIGH HERE. AND I AM GOING TO DO
4 SOMETHING THAT'S A LITTLE UNUSUAL FOR THE LAW AND MOTION
5 CALENDAR. BUT ONCE A PROPOSED MEMORANDUM OF DECISION AND
6 ORDER HAS BEEN PREPARED AND A COPY FURNISHED TO PLAINTIFF'S
7 COUNSEL, I AM GOING TO HANDLE IT LIKE WE WOULD AFTER A
8 BENCH TRIAL AND GIVE YOU AN OPPORTUNITY, MR. REDENBACHER, 9 TO MAKE ANY OBJECTIONS TO THAT MEMORANDUM DECISION AND FORM
10 OF ORDER THAT IS PROPOSED.

11 THE ONLY ISSUE WILL BE WHETHER IT IS A FAITHFUL
12 REDUCTION TO WRITING OF THE ORAL DECISION THAT I HAVE 13 ANNOUNCED OR NOT INCLUDING ANY SPECIFIC REFERENCES TO 14 UNDISPUTED FACTS, SO THAT YOU HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY MORE THAN 15 THE USUAL OBJECTION TO THE FORM OF ORDER I THINK THE CASE
16 IS SIGNIFICANT ENOUGH THAT WE SHOULD GIVE THE PLAINTIFF AN 17 OPPORTUNITY TO DO THAT AND IF EITHER ONE OF YOU WANT A 18 HEARING ON THOSE OBJECTIONS I WILL GIVE YOU ONE IF ANY 19 OBJECTIONS ARE RAISED. AND I WON'T SET A DATE FOR THAT BUT 20 IF THE OBJECTIONS ARE MADE AND THERE IS A REQUEST FOR A 21 HEARING THEN I WANT YOU TO JOINTLY CALL THE CLERK AND JUST 22 TELL US THAT YOU NEED TO COME IN AND I WILL ACCORD YOU A
23 HEARING AND I WILL FINALIZE THE MEMORANDUM DECISION AND 24 ORDER AND THE FORM OF JUDGMENT UNLESS THERE IS A STRONG
25 OBJECTION TO MY HANDLING IT THAT WAY.

26 I BELIEVE THAT IT'S IN ALL YOUR INTERESTS FOR ME TO

1 DO THAT AND THAT WAY AT LEAST THERE WILL BE A SITUATION
2 WHERE, YOU KNOW, THERE'S BEEN A REAL FULL LOOK AT THE
3 ISSUES HERE IN CASE THERE IS REVIEW SOUGHT AND I THINK THAT 4 AN APPELLATE COURT WILL PROBABLY APPRECIATE THAT OF HAVING 5 THAT EXTRA STEP HERE AS UNUSUAL AS IT IS, BUT I BELIEVE I
6 HAVE THE AUTHORITY AND DISCRETION TO DO THAT. THIS CASE IS 7 SUCH THAT, YOU KNOW, IT COULD HAVE BEEN A SPECIALLY
8 ASSIGNED CASE IT'S CERTAINLY COMPLICATED ENOUGH, BUT WE 9 DIDN'T HAVE THE RESOURCES FOR THAT IN THE CURRENT BUDGET
10 CRISIS.

11 SO THAT'S ALL I CAN SAY FOR TODAY AND I WANT TO 12 THANK YOU FOR YOUR -- YOU KNOW, THE BRIEFING ON THIS, THE 13 ARGUMENTS ON THIS, YOU KNOW, IT'S -- I KNOW JUDGES OFTEN 14 SAY THIS BUT IT'S HARD TO CONVEY THE REAL DEPTH OF 15 APPRECIATION ON THIS. I PRACTICED LAW FOR A LONG TIME
16 BEFORE I CAME HERE. I HAVE CASES WHERE THE LAWYERING IS 17 NOT GOOD AND SOMETIMES I FEEL LIKE CRAWLING OVER THE BENCH
18 AND TAKING OVER. IT IS SUCH A PLEASURE, YOU KNOW, TO HAVE 19 REALLY GOOD COUNSEL LIKE IN THIS CASE AND I REALLY, REALLY 20 HAVE APPRECIATED, YOU KNOW, ALL OF THE WORK YOU DID ON 21 THIS, THE WAY THE BRIEFING WAS DONE, THE ARGUMENTS ON BOTH
22 SIDES OF THIS CASE WERE VERY PERSUASIVELY DONE AND I WANT
23 TO THANK YOU FOR ALL OF THAT FINE SUBMISSION TO THE COURT
24 AND THAT IS ALL WE CAN DO FOR TODAY. SO I MIGHT SEE YOU
25 AGAIN IN DUE COURSE.

26 MS. YOB: YOUR HONOR.

1 THE COURT: WHAT YOU DON'T WANT TO QUIT WHILE YOU
2 ARE AHEAD HERE.

3 MS. YOB: WE JUST HAVE TWO QUESTIONS. ONE OF POINT
4 OF LEGAL CLARIFICATION AND THE SECOND IS PROCEDURAL
5 QUESTION. ON THE FIRST POINT WE HAVE OUR CROSS COMPLAINT
6 AND I JUST WANT TO CONFIRM THAT THE COURT SUMMARY JUDGMENT
7 APPLIES TO OUR FIRST AND SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION OUR CROSS
8 COMPLAINT FOR QUIET TITLE AND DECLARATORY RELIEF?

9 THE COURT: OH, ALL RIGHT. WELL, I DON'T KNOW. DO
10 YOU REALLY NEED THAT IN THE FACE OF WHAT I HAVE DECIDED OR 11 DOES THAT BECOME --

12 MR. YOB: YES.

13 THE COURT: -- SUPERFLUOUS?

14 MS. YOB: I THINK WE NEED IT AMONG OTHER REASONS
15 BECAUSE WE SERVED THAT ON THE PUBLIC TO SEEK THE QUIET
16 TITLE AS OUR RIGHTS TO EVERYBODY NOT JUST SPECIFICALLY THE 17 PLAINTIFFS IN THIS CASE.

18 THE COURT: OH, I SEE WHAT YOU ARE SAYING. WELL, 19 THAT WOULD BE CONSISTENT WITH THE FINDINGS THAT I HAVE MADE
20 AND THE CONCLUSIONS OF LAW THAT I HAVE REACHED. AND SO 21 YOUR CLIENT SHOULD HAVE JUDGMENT ON THE CROSS ACTION ON 22 THOSE CAUSES OF ACTION.

23 MR. ESSNER: AND JUST FOR ONE OTHER POINT OF 24 CLARIFICATION, WE DID NOT MOVE FOR SUMMARY JUDGEMENT ON THE 25 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF. BASED ON THE 26 COURT'S RULING TODAY WE WILL GO AHEAD AND DISMISS THAT.

1 CAUSE OF ACTION WITHOUT PREJUDICE AND SO THERE WILL BE NO
2 NEED -- WE WILL IN EFFECT BE GETTING SUMMARY JUDGEMENT ON 3 OUR CROSS COMPLAINT AND THERE WILL BE NO NEED FOR TRIAL ON 4 MONDAY FOR ANY CAUSE OF ACTION. THIS RESOLVES EVERYTHING.

5 THE COURT: I SEE. OKAY. YEAH, THAT IS FINE.

6 MR. ESSNER: THANK YOU.

7 THE COURT: ALL RIGHT.

8 MS. YOB: AND THEN JUST THE SECOND -- THE
9 PROCEDURAL POINT, YOUR HONOR. WE APPRECIATE THE COURT'S 10 ATTENTION TO THIS AND UNDERSTAND HOW BURDENED YOU ARE AND 11 THAT APPLIES EQUALLY TO THE COURT REPORTER AND BECAUSE OF 12 THE BURDEN ON THE COURT REPORTER THEY ARE NOT HONORING 13 REQUESTS TO EXPEDITE TRANSCRIPTS SO WE CONTACTED THE 14 SUPERVISOR PRIOR TO THIS HEARING AND SHE SAID IF THE COURT
15 WERE TO ORDER A TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY A DATE CERTAIN THEN
16 THAT WOULD BE THE ONLY WAY THAT WE COULD GET A TRANSCRIPT
17 PREPARED BY A CERTAIN TIME. SO SHE REQUESTED THAT I MAKE 18 THAT REQUEST IN COURT TODAY OUT OF RESPECT FOR THE COURT
19 REPORTER'S SCHEDULE.

20 THE COURT: WELL, WHAT MAKES HER THINK AND YOU
21 THINK THAT I WOULDN'T HAVE TO NEGOTIATE THAT WITH THE 22 REPORTER. WHO I AM SURE DOESN'T FEEL TOO GOOD ABOUT HAVING 23 BEEN BYPASSED HERE.

24 MR. ESSNER: SO WHEN WOULD THE COURT LIKE THE 25 PROPOSED STATEMENT OF DECISION BECAUSE WE ARE GOING TO NEED
26 THE TRANSCRIPT IN ORDER TO MAKE SURE WE ARE FAITHFULLY

1 ADHERING TO YOUR FINDINGS AND YOUR RULINGS AND, OF COURSE,
2 WE ARE PREPARED TO INCUR THE FEES FOR AN EXPEDITIOUS
3 CHARGE. I UNDERSTAND THERE'S GOING TO BE A PREMIUM FOR 4 THAT.

5 THE COURT: OKAY. LET'S DO THIS. GIVE ME A MINUTE
6 WHERE I CAN CONFER WITH THE REPORTER. MAYBE WE'LL JUST 7 STEP BACK INTO THE BACK HALLWAY, ROSA, AND TALK ABOUT THIS.

8 THE COURT REPORTER: YOU CAN DECIDE, YOUR HONOR.

9 THE COURT: REALLY. ALL RIGHT. WELL, I MEAN, I
10 THINK THE CASE IS PROBABLY IMPORTANT ENOUGH TO GIVE IT THAT 11 PRIORITY THEN AND SO WHAT I WILL DO IS ORDER THAT YOU
12 PREPARE A TRANSCRIPT OUT OF THE NORMAL SEQUENCE OF THINGS
13 EXCEPT FOR IF YOU HAVE HAD ANY REQUESTS FOR TRANSCRIPTS OF 14 PRELIMINARY HEARINGS AND FELONY CASES OR IN ANY OTHER 15 CRIMINAL MATTER WHERE THERE IS CONSTITUTIONAL PRIORITY AND 16 THEN I WILL LEAVE IT, YOU KNOW, TO THE REPORTER BEFORE YOU
17 LEAVE HERE AND GIVE YOU SOME ESTIMATE OF WHEN SHE THINKS 18 THAT CAN BE AVAILABLE. AND AS FAR AS PREPARATION OF THE
19 MEMORANDUM AND DECISION -- MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER
20 SINCE I AM TREATING IT SOMEWHAT SIMILAR TO WHAT WE DO AT 21 THE END OF A BENCH TRIAL THAT CAN BE WITHIN A REASONABLE
22 TIME. AFTER A BENCH TRIAL THERE IS A DEADLINE BY RULE OF 23 COURT BUT THE COURT HAS DISCRETION UNDER A SUBDIVISION M OF 24 THAT RULE TO EXTEND THOSE DEADLINES FOR GOOD CAUSE AND I
25 RECOGNIZE THAT, YOU KNOW, IT'S GOING TO TAKE AWHILE FOR YOU
26 TO GET THE TRANSCRIPT. IT IS GOING TO TAKE AWHILE FOR YOU

1 TO PREPARE A WRITTEN MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER AND THEN
2 MR. REDENBACHER NEEDS TIME TO LOOK AT IT, DECIDE IF HE IS
3 GOING TO MAKE OBJECTIONS AND IF WE GO THROUGH THAT PROCESS
4 SO I AM JUST GOING TO SAY THAT IT NEEDS TO BE DONE, YOU
5 KNOW, WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME MAYBE, WHAT, NOT EXCEEDING 6 90 DAYS OR SOMETHING LIKE THAT BECAUSE OTHERWISE I WILL --
7 YOU WANT ME TO LOOK AT IT WHILE THE MATTER IS FRESH IN MIND
8 AND IF IT CAN BE DONE A LOT EARLIER THAN THAT IT SHOULD BE
9 BUT FOR RIGHT NOW I WILL REQUIRE THAT BE DONE WITHIN 90
10 DAYS, THAT BE PREPARED, MR. REDENBACHER MAKE ANY OBJECTIONS
11 HE HAS AND THEN AT LEAST WE WILL SEE WHERE WE ARE WITHIN 90
12 DAYS ON THAT AND IF YOU CAN DO IT EARLIER THAT'S FINE.

13 MS. YOB: THANK YOU, YOUR HONOR.

14 THE COURT: ALL RIGHT. SO MR. REDENBACHER YOU 15 SHOULD NOT GO AWAY DISCOURAGED BECAUSE I THINK THAT I HAVE 16 SEEN A LOT OF LAWYERS IN MY CAREER AND THIS WAS VERY, VERY 17 WELL PRESENTED YOUR CASE ON THESE MOTIONS AND IT COULD BE 18 THAT AN APPELLATE COURT WILL THINK I AM WRONG AND THAT THAT 19 WILL CARRY THE DAY HERE EVENTUALLY. WE DON'T KNOW BUT WE 20 WILL SEE. ALL RIGHT. HAVE A GOOD DAY.

21 MR. ESSNER: THANK YOU VERY MUCH FOR YOUR TIME. I 22 KNOW IT WAS A LOT OF STRESS ON THE COURT AND THANK YOU TO 23 YOUR LAW CLERK.

24 THE COURT: WHY DON'T WE TALK INFORMALLY FOR A
25 MINUTE IN CHAMBERS. I WANT TO ASK YOU ABOUT THE SETTLEMENT
26 CONFERENCE.

1 MR. ESSNER: OKAY.

2 THE COURT: IF YOU HAVE A MINUTE, OKAY. WHAT YOU
3 WANT TO DO ON THAT.
