26 ¹ Plaintiffs also name as defendants Alice Carlton (in her official capacity as the former Plumas
27 National Forest Supervisor) and Earl Ford (in his official capacity as Plumas National Forest 28 Supervisor). Ms. Carlton and Mr. Ford are no longer with the Forest Service in these capacities and should be substituted pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 25(d) with Mr. French, who is the Acting Forest Supervisor for the Plumas National Forest. See also ¶¶ 30, 31, infra.

1 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8, Federal Defendants, by and through their 2 undersigned counsel, submit the following Answer to the claims and allegations in Plaintiffs’
3 March 18, 2015 Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief (“Complaint”) (ECF No. 1).
4 Federal Defendants are the United States Department of Agriculture; Tom Vilsack, in his official
5 capacity as Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture; United States Forest
6 Service; Tom Tidwell, in his official capacity as Chief of the United States Forest Service;
7 Randy Moore, in his official capacity as Pacific Southwest Regional Forester; and Christopher
8 French, in his official capacity as Acting Forest Supervisor for the Plumas National Forest.
9 Plaintiffs are Amy Granat, Corky Lazzarino, Sierra Access Coalition, California Off-Road
10 Vehicle Association, the County of Plumas, and the County of Butte.

11 The numbered paragraphs of this Answer correspond to the numbered paragraphs of 12 Plaintiffs’ Complaint.

13 “INTRODUCTION”

- 14 1. The allegations in Paragraph 1 constitute characterizations of Plaintiffs’ case, to which no 15 response is required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny the 16 allegations.
- 17 2. The allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 2 constitute conclusions of law and 18 characterizations of Plaintiffs’ case, to which no response is required. To the extent a 19 response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations and deny any violation of 20 law. The allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 2 constitute conclusions of law
21 and Plaintiffs’ prayer for relief, to which no response is required. To the extent a 22 response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations, deny any violation of law,
23 and deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.
- 24 3. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first and second sentences of Paragraph 3.
25 Federal Defendants admit that approximately 3,236 individual routes comprising 26 approximately 1,107 miles of inventoried, unclassified routes may have been used for 27 public motorized travel before issuance of the Record of Decision. Federal Defendants 28 lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth or falsity of the

1 remaining allegations in the third sentence of Paragraph 3, and on this basis deny the 2 allegations. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the fourth sentence of Paragraph 3 4 with the clarification that prior to the issuance of the Travel Management Rule, the 4 Plumas National Forest was open to cross-country motorized travel. The allegations in 5 the fifth sentence of Paragraph 3 constitute characterizations of Plaintiffs' case, to which 6 no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny
7 the allegations. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a 8 belief about the truth or falsity of the allegations in the sixth and seventh sentences of 9 Paragraph 3, and on this basis deny the allegations.

10 4. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in Paragraph 4.

11 5. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in Paragraph 5 and further deny any violation of 12 law.

13 "JURISDICTION"

14 6. The allegations in Paragraph 6 constitute conclusions of law and statements regarding 15 jurisdiction, to which no response is required.

16 7. The allegations in Paragraph 7 constitute conclusions of law and statements regarding
17 jurisdiction, to which no response is required.

18 8. The allegations in Paragraph 8 constitute conclusions of law and statements regarding
19 jurisdiction, to which no response is required.

20 9. The allegations in Paragraph 9 constitute conclusions of law, to which no response is 21 required.

22 10. With regards to the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 10, Federal Defendants
23 admit that Plaintiffs Sierra Access Coalition, California Off-Road Vehicle Association, 24 the County of Butte, and the County of Plumas timely filed administrative appeals.
25 Federal Defendants deny the remaining allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 10.
26 Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the second, third, fourth, and fifth sentences
27 of Paragraph 10.
28

1 11. The allegations in Paragraph 11 constitute conclusions of law, to which no response is
2 required.

3 “VENUE”

4 12. The allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 12 constitute conclusions of law and
5 statements regarding venue, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants admit
6 the allegations in the second and third sentences of Paragraph 12.

7 “PARTIES”

8 13. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the
9 truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 13, and on this basis deny the allegations.

10 14. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the
11 truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 14, and on this basis deny the allegations.

12 15. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 15. The 13 allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 15 constitute conclusions of law, to 14 which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants
15 deny the allegations.

16 16. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the
17 truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 16, and on this basis deny the allegations.

18 17. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the
19 truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 17, and on this basis deny the allegations.

20 18. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the
21 truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 18, and on this basis deny the allegations.

22 19. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the
23 truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 19, and on this basis deny the allegations.

24 20. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 20. The 25 allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 20 constitute conclusions of law, to
26 which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants
27 deny the allegations.
28

1 21. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the
2 truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 21, and on this basis deny the allegations.

3 22. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the
4 truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 22, and on this basis deny the allegations.

5 23. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 23. Federal
6 Defendants deny the allegations in the fifth sentence of Paragraph 23 and aver that
7 approximately 1,000,260 acres of the Plumas National Forest are located within Plumas
8 County. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief
9 about the truth or falsity of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 23, and on this basis
10 deny the allegations.

11 24. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 24. Federal
12 Defendants deny the allegations in the fifth sentence of Paragraph 23 and aver that
13 approximately 84,040 acres of the Plumas National Forest are located within Butte
14 County. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief
15 about the truth or falsity of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 23, and on this basis
16 deny the allegations.

17 25. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 25.

18 26. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 26

19 27. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 27.

20 28. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 28.

21 29. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 29. Federal 22 Defendants deny the allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 29 and aver that 23 Ronald G. Ketter, the Deputy Regional Forester for the Pacific Southwest Region of the 24 Forest Service, was the Appeal Deciding Officer for Plaintiffs' appeals of the Record of 25 Decision and the Final Environmental Impact Statement.

26 30. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 30 and aver that Alice Carlton left 27 her position as Forest Supervisor for the Plumas National Forest in or about July 2011.
28

1 31. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in Paragraph 31 and aver that Christopher
2 French is the Acting Forest Supervisor for the Plumas National Forest.

3 “LEGAL FRAMEWORK”
4 “ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT”

5 32. The allegations in Paragraph 32 purport to characterize the Administrative Procedure Act.
6 The statute speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content. The Court is referred 7 to the statute for true and complete statements of its provisions.

8 “NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY ACT”

9 33. The allegations in Paragraph 33 purport to quote from and characterize the National 10 Environmental Policy Act (“NEPA”), 42 U.S.C. § 4331(a), and Council on 11 Environmental Quality (“CEQ regulations”), 40 C.F.R. § 1501.1(a)-(c). The statute and 12 regulations speak for themselves and are the best evidence of their contents. The Court is 13 referred to the statute and regulations for true and complete statements of their 14 provisions.

15 34. The allegations in Paragraph 34 purport to quote from and characterize NEPA, 42 U.S.C.
16 § 4332(2)(C)(i)-(iv), and CEQ regulations, 40 C.F.R. §§ 1500.2(e)-(f). The statute and 17 regulations speak for themselves and are the best evidence of their contents. The Court is 18 referred to the statute and regulations for true and complete statements of their
19 provisions.

20 35. The allegations in Paragraph 35 purport to characterize NEPA and CEQ regulation 40
21 C.F.R. § 1505.2. The statute and regulation speak for themselves and are the best
22 evidence of their contents. The Court is referred to the statute and regulation for true and
23 complete statements of their provisions.

24 “NATIONAL FOREST MANAGEMENT ACT”

25 36. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 36. The 26 allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 36 purport to quote from and characterize 27 Lands Council v. McNair, 537 F.3d 981 (9th Cir. 2008). The case speaks for itself and is 28

1 the best evidence of its content. The Court is referred to the case for true and complete
2 statements of its language.

3 37. The allegations in Paragraph 37 purport to quote from and characterize the National
4 Forest Management Act (“NFMA”), 16 U.S.C. § 1604(g), and the Multiple-Use
5 Sustained Yield Act, 16 U.S.C. § 531. The statutes speak for themselves and are the best
6 evidence of their contents. The Court is referred to the statutes for true and complete 7 statements of their provisions.

8 38. The allegations in Paragraph 38 purport to quote from and characterize NFMA, 16 U.S.C.
9 § 1604(a), (g)(3)(A). The statute speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content.
10 The Court is referred to the statute for true and complete statements of its provisions.

11 39. The allegations in Paragraph 39 purport to quote from and characterize NFMA, 16 U.S.C.
12 § 1604(a), and the 1982 Forest Service planning regulations, 36 C.F.R. §§ 219.4, 219.16.
13 The statute and regulations speak for themselves and are the best evidence of their 14 contents. The Court is referred to the statute and regulations for true and complete 15 statements of their provisions. Federal Defendants aver that the cited regulations have 16 been superseded and that the current Forest Service planning rule was promulgated in 17 2012. 77 Fed. Reg. 21,162 (April 9, 2012) (codified at 36 C.F.R. pt. 219).

18 “ALLEGATIONS REGARDING THE TRAVEL MANAGEMENT RULE”

19 40. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first and second sentences of Paragraph 20 40. The allegations in the third sentence of Paragraph 40 constitute conclusions of law, 21 to which no response is required.

22 41. The allegations in Paragraph 41 purport to quote from and characterize the Federal 23 Register Notice for the Travel Management Rule, 70 Fed. Reg. 68,264 (Nov. 9, 2005).
24 The Notice speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content. The Court is referred 25 to the Federal Register Notice for true and complete statements of its language.

26 42. The allegations in Paragraph 42 purport to characterize Subpart A (Administration of the 27 Forest Transportation System) of the Forest Service’s travel management regulations, 36
28 C.F.R. § 212.5(b). The cited regulation speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its

1 content. The Court is referred to the regulation for a true and complete statement of its
2 provisions.

3 43. The allegations in Paragraph 43 purport to characterize Subpart B (Designation of Roads,
4 Trails, and Areas for Motor Vehicle Use) of the Forest Service’s travel management
5 regulations, 36 C.F.R. § 212.55(a), (b). The cited regulation speaks for itself and is the 6 best evidence of its content. The Court is referred to the regulation for true and complete
7 statements of its provisions.

8 44. The allegations in Paragraph 44 purport to quote from and characterize the Forest
9 Service’s travel management regulations, 36 C.F.R. § 212.53. The cited regulation
10 speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content. The Court is referred to the 11 regulation for true and complete statements of its provisions.

12 45. The allegations in Paragraph 45 purport to quote from and characterize the Federal 13 Register Notice for the Travel Management Rule, 70 Fed. Reg. at 68,264-65. The Notice
14 speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content. The Court is referred to the 15 Federal Register Notice for true and complete statements of its provisions.

16 “ALLEGATIONS REGARDING PLUMAS NATIONAL FOREST AND 17 IMPLEMENTATION OF THE TRAVEL MANAGEMENT RULE”

18 46. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 46.

19 47. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 47.

20 48. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first and third sentences of Paragraph 48.
21 In response to the second sentence of Paragraph 48, Federal Defendants admit that prior 22 to the 2010 Record of Decision (“ROD”) multiple uses (including motorized vehicle use)
23 occurred in many areas of the Forest (including user-created roads and trails), and that the 24 use of such roads and trails was not illegal.

25 49. The allegations in Paragraph 49 purport to characterize the 1988 Plumas Land and 26 Resource Management Plan (“Plumas LRMP”), which speaks for itself and is the best
27 evidence of its content. The Court is referred to the Plumas LRMP for true and complete
28 statements of its provisions.

1 50. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 50 with the 2 clarification that the Forest Service regulated motorized vehicle use and other uses of the 3 Plumas National Forest both prior to, and after the adoption of, the Travel Management
4 Rule. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 50
5 with the clarification that the Forest Service developed the 1989 Off-Road Vehicle Travel
6 Plan as an implementation plan of the Plumas LRMP. In response to the third sentence
7 of Paragraph 50, Federal Defendants admit that the Land and Resource Management Plan
8 (Forest Plan) governs Forest Service management of National Forest System lands.

9 Federal Defendants deny the remaining allegations in the third sentence of Paragraph 50.

10 51. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 51. Federal 11 Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth or 12 falsity of the allegations in the second and third sentences of Paragraph 51, and on this 13 basis deny the allegations.

14 52. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 52. The
15 allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 52 purport to quote from and characterize
16 the 2003 Memorandum of Intent, which speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its 17 content. The Court is referred to the 2003 Memorandum of Intent for true and complete
18 statements of its provisions.

19 53. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in the first and second sentences of Paragraph 20 53. The allegations in the third sentence of Paragraph 53 purport to characterize the Draft
21 Environmental Impact Statement (“DEIS”) for the challenged decision, which speaks for 22 itself and is the best evidence of its content. The Court is referred to the DEIS for true 23 and complete statements of its provisions. Federal Defendants aver that prior to the 24 ROD, user-created routes that were not in the Forest Transportation System were 25 unauthorized but not illegal.

26 54. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 54.

27 55. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 55, with the clarification that 28 Sierra Access Coalition’s comments on the DEIS are dated March 15, 2009, and

1 California Off-Road Vehicle Association's comments on the DEIS are dated March 12, 2 2009.

3 56. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 56 and aver
4 that the Notice of Availability was published in the Federal Register on November 5, 5 2010, and that the legal notice was published in the newspaper of record on 6 November 10, 2010. The allegations in the second and third sentences of Paragraph 56
7 purport to characterize the ROD, which speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its 8 content. The Court is referred to the ROD for true and complete statements of its 9 provisions. Federal Defendants deny any failure to satisfy public comment requirements.

10 57. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in Paragraph 57 but aver that the Motor Vehicle
11 Use Map was published in 2011.

12 58. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in Paragraph 58 but aver that an updated Motor 13 Vehicle Use Map was published in 2013.

14 “SPECIFIC ALLEGATIONS THAT SUPPORT DECLARATORY RELIEF”

15 59. Federal Defendants repeat and reassert their responses to all preceding paragraphs as if
16 fully set forth herein.

17 60. The allegations in Paragraph 60 constitute characterizations of Plaintiffs' case and
18 conclusions of law, to which no response is required. To the extent a response is 19 required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations and deny any violation of law.

20 61. The allegations in Paragraph 61 constitute characterizations of Plaintiffs' case and
21 conclusions of law, to which no response is required. To the extent a response is
22 required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations and deny any violation of law.

23 62. The allegations in Paragraph 62 constitute Plaintiffs' prayer for relief, to which no
24 response is required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny that 25 Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.

26 “SPECIFIC ALLEGATIONS THAT SUPPORT INJUNCTIVE RELIEF”

27 63. Federal Defendants repeat and reassert their responses to all preceding paragraphs as if
28 fully set forth herein.

1 64. The allegations in Paragraph 64 constitute characterizations of Plaintiffs' case and
2 conclusions of law, to which no response is required. To the extent a response is
3 required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations and deny any violation of law.

4 65. The allegations in Paragraph 65 constitute characterizations of Plaintiffs' case and
5 conclusions of law, to which no response is required. To the extent a response is
6 required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations and deny any violation of law.

7 66. The allegations in Paragraph 66 constitute characterizations of Plaintiffs' case and
8 conclusions of law, to which no response is required. To the extent a response is 9 required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations.

10 67. The allegations in Paragraph 67 constitute characterizations of Plaintiffs' case and
11 conclusions of law, to which no response is required. To the extent a response is 12 required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations and deny any violation of law.

13 "CLAIMS FOR RELIEF"
14 "FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF"

15 "(Illegal Application of Substantive Criteria of Travel Management Rule)"

16 68. Federal Defendants repeat and reassert their responses to all preceding paragraphs as if
17 fully set forth herein.

18 69. The allegations in Paragraph 69 purport to characterize Subpart A of the Forest Service's
19 travel management regulations, 36 C.F.R. § 212.5(b). The regulation speaks for itself
20 and is the best evidence of its content. The Court is referred to the regulation for a true 21 and complete statement of its provisions.

22 70. The allegations in Paragraph 70 purport to characterize Subpart B of the Forest Service's 23 travel management regulations, 36 C.F.R. § 212.5(a), (b). The regulations speaks for 24 themselves and are the best evidence of their contents. The Court is referred to the 25 regulations for true and complete statements of their provisions.

26 71. The allegations in Paragraph 71 purport to characterize the ROD and the Travel
27 Management Rule, which speak for themselves and are the best evidence of their content.
28 The Court is referred to the ROD and Travel Management Rule for true and complete

1 statements of their provisions. Federal Defendants aver that Subpart A and Subpart B of 2 the Travel Management Rule are separate procedures.

3 72. The allegations in Paragraph 72 purport to quote from and characterize the Forest
4 Service's Route Designation Guidebook, which speaks for itself and is the best evidence
5 of its content. The Court is referred to the Guidebook for true and complete statements of 6 its provisions.

7 73. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in Paragraph 73. Federal Defendants further 8 aver that the Guidebook is not binding on the Agency.

9 74. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 74, with the 10 clarification that the Forest Service inventoried non-system National Forest
11 Transportation System routes. The allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 74
12 purport to characterize the Final Environmental Impact Statement ("FEIS") for the 13 challenged decision, which speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content. The 14 Court is referred to the FEIS for true and complete statements of its provisions.

15 75. The allegations in Paragraph 75 purport to characterize the FEIS for the challenged
16 decision, which speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content. The Court is 17 referred to the FEIS for true and complete statements of its provisions. Federal 18 Defendants deny any violation of law.

19 76. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 76, with the clarification that the 20 Forest Service also retained numerous spur roads and short connector routes under 0.5 21 miles in length.

22 77. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 77 with the 23 clarification that designation of roads solely for the purpose of private property access
24 was not consistent with the project purpose and need, which was to provide for a system 25 of roads, trails, and areas for public motor vehicle use. Where private property access is 26 needed by the property owner, it can be provided under a Special Use Permit and as 27 specifically provided for in the Travel Management Rule, 36 C.F.R. § 212.51(a)(8). The 28 allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 77 purport to characterize the FEIS for

1 the challenged decision, which speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content.

2 The Court is referred to the FEIS for true and complete statements of its provisions.

3 Federal Defendants deny any violation of law.

4 78. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in Paragraph 78.

5 79. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in Paragraph 79.

6 80. The allegations in Paragraph 80 constitute conclusions of law and Plaintiffs' prayer for
7 relief, to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Federal
8 Defendants deny the allegations, deny any violation of law, and deny that Plaintiffs are
9 entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.

10 81. The allegations in Paragraph 81 constitute conclusions of law, to which no response is
11 required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations
12 and deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.

13 82. The allegations in Paragraph 82 constitute conclusions of law, to which no response is
14 required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations
15 and deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.

16 “SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF”

17 “(Failure to Coordinate with Local Governments Under Travel Management Rule)”

18 83. Federal Defendants repeat and reassert their responses to all preceding paragraphs as if
19 fully set forth herein.

20 84. The allegations in Paragraph 84 purport to quote from and characterize the Forest
21 Service's travel management regulations, 36 C.F.R. § 212.53. The regulation speaks for 22 itself and is the best evidence of its content. The Court is referred to the regulation for a 23 true and complete statement of its provisions.

24 85. The allegations in Paragraph 85 purport to quote from and characterize the Forest Service
25 Manual, FSM 7700 §§ 7702, 7710.3. The Manual speaks for itself and is the best
26 evidence of its content. The Court is referred to the Manual for true and complete
27 statements of its provisions.

1 86. The allegations in Paragraph 86 purport to characterize the Forest Service Manual, FSM
2 7700 § 7715.3. The Manual speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content. The 3 Court is referred to the Manual for true and complete statements of its provisions.

4 87. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in Paragraph 87 and aver that the Forest Service
5 does not designate or manage access on county roads.

6 88. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the
7 truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 88, and on this basis deny the allegations.
8 Federal Defendants aver that the Forest Service does not designate or manage access on 9 county roads.

10 89. Federal Defendants admit that Butte County Board of Supervisors sent a letter dated 11 November 18, 2008, addressed to Randy Moore, Regional Forester. The remaining 12 allegations in Paragraph 89 purport to characterize the November 18, 2008 letter and 13 comments on the DEIS from the Butte County Board of Supervisors. The letter and 14 comments speak for themselves and are the best evidence of their contents. The Court is 15 referred to the letter and comments for true and complete statements of their provisions.

16 90. The allegations in Paragraph 90 purport to characterize Plumas County Board of 17 Supervisors Resolution 08-7514. The Resolution speaks for itself and is the best

16 "(Failure to Prepare Supplement to Draft Environmental Impact Statement)"

17 174. Federal Defendants repeat and reassert their responses to all preceding paragraphs as if
18 fully set forth herein.

19 175. The allegations in Paragraph 175 purport to characterize NEPA and CEQ regulation, 40
20 C.F.R. § 1502.9(c)(1)(i). The statute and regulation speak for themselves and are the best
21 evidence of their contents. The Court is referred to the statute and regulation for true and
22 complete statements of their provisions.

23 176. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 176. In
24 response to the allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 176, Federal Defendants
25 admit that they did not prepare a supplement to the DEIS but deny that such a supplement
26 was required.

27 177. The allegations in Paragraph 177, including subparts A through H, purport to characterize 28 the DEIS and FEIS for the challenged decision, which speak for themselves and are the

1 best evidence of their contents. The Court is referred to the DEIS and FEIS for true and
2 complete statements of their provisions.

3 178. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 178. In
4 response to the allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 176, Federal Defendants
5 admit that they did not prepare a supplement to the DEIS but deny that such a supplement
6 was required.

7 179. The allegations in Paragraph 179 constitute conclusions of law and Plaintiffs' prayer for
8 relief, to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Federal
9 Defendants deny the allegations, deny any violation of law, and deny that Plaintiffs are
10 entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.

11 180. The allegations in Paragraph 180 constitute conclusions of law, to which no response is
12 required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations
13 and deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.

14 181. The allegations in Paragraph 181 constitute conclusions of law, to which no response is
15 required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations
16 and deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.

17 “ELEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF”
18 “(Failure to Adequately Consider Cumulative Impacts)”

19 182. Federal Defendants repeat and reassert their responses to all preceding paragraphs as if
20 fully set forth herein.

21 183. The allegations in Paragraph 183 purport to quote from and characterize NEPA, 42
22 U.S.C. § 4332(2)(C), CEQ regulations, 40 C.F.R. § 1508.25, and Tennakee Springs v.
23 Clough, 915 F.2d 1308 (9th Cir. 1990). The statute, regulations, and case speak for 24 themselves and are the best evidence of their contents. The Court is referred to the 25 statute, regulations, and case for true and complete statements of their contents.

26 184. The allegations in Paragraph 184 purport to quote from and characterize CEQ regulation, 27 40 C.F.R. § 1508.7. The regulation speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its 28

1 content. The Court is referred to the regulation for a true and complete statement of its
2 provisions.

3 185. The allegations in Paragraph 185 purport to quote from and characterize Northern Plains
4 Resource Council, Inc. v. Surface Transportation Board, 668 F.3d 1067 (9th Cir. 2011)
5 and CEQ regulation, 40 C.F.R. § 1500.1(b). The case and regulation speak for 6 themselves and are the best evidence of their contents. The Court is referred to the case
7 and regulation for true and complete statements of their contents.

8 186. The allegations in Paragraph 186 purport to characterize the FEIS for the challenged
9 decision, which speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its content. The Court is 10 referred to the FEIS for true and complete statements of its provisions.

11 187. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in Paragraph 187 and deny any violation of law.

12 188. The allegations in Paragraph 188 constitute conclusions of law, to which no response is
13 required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations
14 and deny any violation of law.

15 189. The allegations in Paragraph 189 constitute conclusions of law and Plaintiffs' prayer for 16 relief, to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Federal
17 Defendants deny the allegations, deny any violation of law, and deny that Plaintiffs are
18 entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.

19 190. The allegations in Paragraph 190 constitute conclusions of law, to which no response is
20 required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations
21 and deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.

22 191. The allegations in Paragraph 191 constitute conclusions of law, to which no response is
23 required. To the extent a response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations
24 and deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief requested or any other relief.
