STIPULATED FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER

The Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection (Bureau) commenced this civil action against Townstone Financial, Inc. (Townstone) on July 15, 2020, to obtain injunctive and monetary relief and civil penalties. The November 25, 2020 Amended Complaint alleges that Townstone violated the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA), 15 U.S.C. §§ 1691–1691f, Regulation B, 12 C.F.R. § 1002.4(b), and the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (CFPA), 12 U.S.C. § 5536(a)(1)(A), in connection with Townstone’s offering or provision of Mortgage Loans.

CONDUCT PROVISIONS

I.

IT IS ORDERED that:

6. Townstone and its officers, agents, servants, and employees, and all other persons in active concert or participation with it who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, may not engage in any acts or practices that violate ECOA, 15 U.S.C. § 1690 et seq., in connection with offering or providing Mortgage Loans.

7. Within 60 days of the Effective Date, Townstone must take the following affirmative actions:

- a. Maintain a compliance management system that is consistent with guidance provided in the Bureau's Supervision and Examination Manual and is reasonably designed to ensure Townstone's operations comply with ECOA;
- b. Create, implement, and maintain policies and procedures to test Townstone's compliance with the ECOA; and
- c. Require ongoing education and training in applicable federal consumer protection laws and the terms of this Order for all appropriate employees, with training tailored to individual job duties and other roles within the company.

II.

Role of the Board and Executives

8. Townstone's Board has the ultimate responsibility for ensuring that Townstone complies with this Order.
9. Townstone's Board and Chief Executive Officer must:
 - a. Authorize whatever actions are necessary for Townstone to assess whether Townstone is complying with each paragraph and subparagraph of this Order; and
 - b. Authorize whatever actions, including corrective actions, are necessary for Townstone to fully comply with each paragraph and subparagraph of this Order.

MONETARY PROVISIONS

III.

Order to Pay Civil Money Penalty

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

10. Under § 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), by reason of the violations of law alleged in the Amended Complaint, and taking into account the factors in 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), Townstone must pay a total civil money penalty of $105,000 to the Bureau.
11. Within 30 days of the Effective Date, Townstone must pay the civil money penalty by wire transfer to the Bureau or the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions.

12. The civil money penalty paid under this Order will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by Section 1017(d) of the CFPB, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).

13. Townstone must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Order as a penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Regardless of how the Bureau ultimately uses those funds, Townstone may not:

- a. claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax benefit for any amount of the civil money penalty paid under this Order; or
- b. seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, with regard to any civil money penalty paid under this Order. This paragraph will not prevent Townstone from receiving capital contributions from its President and Chief Executive, Barry Sturner, to enable Townstone to pay the civil money penalty to the Bureau under the terms of this Order.

14. In the event of any default on Townstone's obligation to make payment under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amounts not paid from the Effective Date to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.

15. Townstone relinquishes all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid under this Order to the fullest extent permitted by law and no part of the funds may be returned to Townstone.

16. The facts alleged in the Amended Complaint will be taken as true and be given collateral estoppel effect, without further proof, in any subsequent action by the Bureau to enforce the Order or its rights to any payment or monetary judgment under the Order.

17. Townstone acknowledges that its taxpayer-identification number, which Townstone previously submitted to the Bureau, may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701.

18. Within 30 days of the entry of a final judgment, order, or settlement in a Related Consumer Action, Townstone must notify the Enforcement Director of the final judgment, order, or settlement in writing. That notification must indicate the amount of redress, if any, that Townstone paid or is required to pay to consumers and describe the consumers or classes of consumers to whom that redress has been or will be paid.

19. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty in any Related Consumer Action, Townstone may not argue that Townstone is entitled to, nor may Townstone benefit by, any offset or reduction of any monetary remedies imposed in the Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action or because of any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund. If the court in any Related Consumer Action offsets or otherwise reduces the amount of compensatory monetary remedies imposed against Townstone based on the civil money penalty paid in this action or based on any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund, Townstone must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting such offset or reduction, notify the Bureau and pay the amount of the offset or reduction to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.
